FRENCH OFFENSIVE CHEERS THE BRITISH

GERMANS OFFER GREAT DEFENSE IN LENS SECTOR

Von Hindenburg Brings Up Reserves
and the Destruction of City
Is Going Forward.

BERLIN DISCOUNTS BRITISH REPORTS

London, April 16.—(6:52 p. m.)—"News of the opening of the great French offensive has spread like wild-fire through the British forces," telegraphs Reuter's correspondent at British headquarters in France today.

The Germans, it is apparent, have sent in their reserves and are making a desperate defense to enable their engineers to complete the destruction of the mines and factories of Lens, which might have been useful to the allies.

Despite the fact that all along the line between Lens and St. Quentin the German resistance has stiffened, Gen. Haig reports today the capture of Villers, which straightens his line northwest of St. Quentin, and announces further progress to the northwest of Lens. Counter attacks which the Germans have launched at Monchy and Lagnicourt suggests that the British are approaching dangerously near the new German line which, according to unofficial accounts, the Germans had not time to complete before the British offensive was launched.

BRITISH OFFICIAL REPORT.

London, April 16.—The British last night captured the village of Villers, southeast of Hargicourt, according to an official statement issued by the war office. They also made progress northwest of Lens.

Large captures of guns and war material were made by the British at Lievin and on the Souchez river, in the Lens region, the statement announces. The cannon taken include a six-inch naval gun, of long range. Truck loads of new tools, many thousands rounds of ammunition and quantities of bombs, grenades and engineering equipment also were captured.

The statement reads: "We captured last night the village of Villers, southeast of Hargicourt and northwest of Lens."

"Full particulars of the booty we took at Lievin and the Souchez river are unavailable, but the fact is established that the capture was of considerable importance, including a long range six-inch naval gun, many thousands rounds of ammunition of all calibers up to eight inch, a number of trench mortars and great quantities of bombs and grenades of all kinds. In addition truck load of new tools, many thousands rounds of ammunition and quantities of bombs, grenades and engineering equipment also were captured."

"The attack at Monchy-le-Preux, on the 14th, was pressed by the enemy with great determination. The third Bavarian division, which was brought down to resist our offensive during the battle of Loos in 1915, and later took part in the fighting near Highwood during the Somme battle in 1916, was hurled down to reinforce the divisions already in line. It was ordered to retake Monchy-le-Preux at all costs. Its losses in this fruitless attack were exceptionally heavy, as has been the case with all the Bavarian troops throughout the whole recent operations."

"Of the prisoners taken by us since the ninth, more than one-third are Bavarians."

BRITISH VERSION DISPUTED.

Amsterdam, April 16.—It is asserted in a dispatch received here from Berlin that various villages in the Arras region, which the British official statement of April 14 reports as captured, were villages and pieces of ground which the Germans had not entirely evacuated several days previously.

"The English press," says the dispatch, "is circulating reports regarding the piercing of the Hindenburg line. The English attempt to break through was directed, however, against old positions held since 1915 and despite local successes it has completely and finally failed."

"It is not clear what the English

LATIN AMERICA GETS TOGETHER

Republics of Southern Continent Lining Up With United States.

ALL BUT THREE SHOW SYMPATHY

These Are Expected Within the Week to Act With Their Sisters.

Washington, April 16.—Prompt endorsements from South American countries of the action of the United States taking up Germany's challenge to war are the source of great gratification to officials of the administration. There remained today but three countries—Ecuador, Venezuela and Colombia—which had not defined their positions and it was believed that before the end of the week they too, would respond.

With the exception of Costa Rica, none of the Central American group had declared its attitude, but no concern over where their sympathy will be placed has been felt at the state department. So far Cuba is the only war spot in Latin America, but the positions assumed by Panama and Costa Rica place them practically in the list of war nations and nations of doubtful remains that Brazil would be at war within a few days.

The only governments that have not been frank in their endorsement of the step taken by the United States are Chile and Peru, the former coming in self to a formal declaration of neutrality and the latter to "deploring" the fact that the United States had been unable to adjust her difficulties with Germany without recourse to war.

How Latin-America is Alligned.

Following is the way the other Latin-American nations whose positions are defined were lined up today: Cuba—Declared war against Germany.

ALL WIRELESS STATIONS MUST BE DISMANTLED

Washington, April 16.—All wireless telegraph stations not operated by the government were ordered dismantled during the war today by direction of the secretary of the navy. Failure of owners to comply will result in confiscation of equipment.

The action was taken under the executive order recently issued by President Wilson directing the navy department to take over all radio stations. The department's statement says: "All licenses for radio stations on shore are suspended for the duration of the war. The secretary of the navy has directed that during the war all radio sending and receiving stations, other than those operated by the United States government be closed. A station is considered closed only when its antenna is lowered, coiled and sealed; ground connection broken and the apparatus dismantled and packed away. It is incumbent upon the owners themselves to close their stations. Failure to close stations will result in its apparatus being confiscated by the government. The owners of a station operating in defiance of this order will be under suspicion of an enemy alien. It is requested that full publicity be given this notice, in order that all persons may be acquainted with these requirements."

BRAZIL SEIZES GERMAN SHIPS IN WAR FEVER

Rio Janeiro, Brazil, April 16.—The seizure of German ships has been completed without incident.

Press dispatches from Santos report the arrest of three German spies near the fort at Itapui.

More than 50,000 persons attended a demonstration under the auspices of the league of the allies. The flags of the entente nations were cheered, and were the diplomatic representative of these countries who attended the celebration. The crowd was stirred to a high pitch of enthusiasm by a speech delivered by Ruy Barbosa, Brazilian ambassador to Argentina, who has a larger following among the Brazilian people than almost any other man in public life. The ambassador solemnly admonished the Brazilian government to heed the signs of the times, calling attention to the revolution in Russia to demonstrate that it was necessary for the people to keep watch over the policy of their government. "The great war is drawing Brazil irresistibly onward," he declared. "I am convinced that war is inevitable. All North and South America are long will be fighting for humanity. I soon hope to see Brazil rise like a man who has broken the chains which bound him."

"There is an absolute identity of interests between Brazil and the United States as regards Germany. The United States is in a state of war. Are the lives of Brazilians worth more than the lives of North Americans?"

RUSSIAN HERO OF JAP WAR IS UNDER ARREST

Tashkent, Asiatic Russia, Sunday, April 15, Via London, April 16.—3:45 p. m.—Gen. Alexi Kuropatkin, governor general of Turkestan; his assistant, Gen. Zverof, and Gen. Sievers, chief of staff, have been arrested by the council of soldiers' delegates.

Gen. Buroff, commanding the first Siberian brigade, and Gen. Tsomilien, commanding the local brigade, also have been placed under arrest and confined to a guard room.

The officers are charged with distributing arms to Russians in various districts for defense against natives in event of an attack. This action has been held to be of a provocative character.

COMMITTEE OF SENATE VOTES FOR WAR FUND

Not a Member Dissents and It Is Expected to Pass Seven Billion
Measure at a Sitting.

SENATE MAY AMEND MEASURE SOMEWHAT

Washington, April 16.—The $7,000,000,000 war revenue bill as passed by the house was approved today by the senate finance committee and will be taken up in the senate tomorrow for passage.

The committee vote was unanimous and there was prospect of an attempt to put the bill through in one session. One change in the bill is to make apparent its purpose of assisting in the prosecution of the war.

Another suggested by Secretary McAdoo is to permit funds raised under the measure to be deposited in banks not members of the federal reserve system and in trust companies. A third is to more clearly exempt certificates of indebtedness from taxation.

The bill passed in the house late Saturday afternoon by a vote that was unanimous. Speaker Clark voted for the measure, an unusual action for that official. Meyer London, of New York, socialist, was the only member present who did not vote. Jeanette Rankin, the only woman member, voted for it, though she voted against the war resolution a week ago.

SHORTAGE IN LABOR WORSE.

"The rush of young men to the army and navy is making the labor situation at our shop worse," said Employment Agent W. F. Melching, of the General Electric works, this morning. "So far we have lost thirty-five of our employees by enlistment in the army and navy and when Company E is called out, many more will retire from the shop," Mr. Melching said. "I am not complaining about the patriotism of these young men, but the country needs them and they are performing their duty by enlisting." Mr. Melching said. "It is now up to us to fill the vacant places in the shop if we can and we are making an effort in that direction. We want skilled and competent labor of all kinds," he continued.

MILLIONS OF ACRES OF LANDS THAT CAN BE PUT TO TILLAGE

Washington, April 16.—Millions of acres of unallotted public lands in the western states awaits the coming of the farmer and the herdsmen. Millions of acres of fine farm lands in the eastern states lie idle through lack of men to work them. Forty-two millions of our population stifle in crowded cities and complain of the high cost of living.

"Any citizen of the United States who has not already located a homestead, may apply for as many acres of straight farming land as he wants up to 160 acres in the restricted sections and up to 320 acres in the unrestricted sections. Straight farming land may be had to the extent of $40 acre."

"From Alabama to Alaska land is waiting to be taken up. And with all these resources we face an actual food famine."

SEVERAL TOWNS SOLD MORE THAN FT. WAYNE

Announcement of Winners in
is Made.

Contrary to expectations Fort Wayne did not win first in the sale of Red Cross seals, although making a splendid record. Fort Wayne won second prize in the seventh class of cities, the average here being six seals per capita, while Troy, New York, won first with 6.3 per capita, in the same class.

Several cities sold more seals per capita than did Fort Wayne, as shown by announcement of Red Cross seal prize winners by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis at New York. An unusual number of new records were made by the smaller cities and villages in the last Christmas sale. There were 235 localities selling five or more of the little holiday stickers per capita in a country-wide sale that raised more than $1,000,000 for tuberculosis work.

The little town of Hershey, Pa., with less than 2,000 population, took the lead. Here there were nearly 79 seals sold for each man, woman and child in the town.

Satin banners will be presented to the pennant winners by the American Red Cross and the National association at the annual meeting of the latter in Cincinnati, May 9 to 11. Agents in each of the towns selling five or more seals will also receive a certificate of commendation.

PLANS PLACED BEFORE SENATE

Washington, April 16.—Theodore Roosevelt's plans for raising and accompanying a volunteer expedition abroad were laid before the senate military committee today by Chairman Chamberlain at a meeting called to consider the administration selective draft bill. Details of the plan were submitted by the colonel to the chairman of the senate and house military committees in response to a request made when he came here recently to confer with the president about his project. While expressing hearty approval of the administration bill Col. Roosevelt insisted the volunteers could be put on the firing line and that the American flag should be there at the earliest possible moment.

Members of the committee gave careful study to the proposal but there was no definite indication what action will be taken.
The committee was expected to determine today whether to hold public hearings on the administration bill. Whether this is done war department officials and army officers will continue their arguments for the legislation before the two congressional committees.

LATIN AMERICA

Panama.—Declared her readiness to assist in any way possible in the protection of the Panama canal.
Costa Rica.—Offered her ports and other territorial waters to the United States for war needs of the American navy.
Brazil.—Relations broken with Germany.
Bolivia.—Relations broken with Germany.
Uruguay.—Endorsed the action of the United States and characterized Germany's submarine warfare as an "insult to humanity."
Paraguay.—Expressed sympathy with the government of the United States "forced into war to rehabilitate the rights of neutrals."
Argentina.—Endorsed the action of the United States as just and right.
Mexico.—Neutral.
State department officials believe it possible that the government of Ecuador may consider itself bound to adopt a somewhat equivocal attitude because of a suggestion made several weeks ago that a conference of neutrals be held at Montevideo to study means for bringing the war to an end.
Guatemala.—Expected to break.
Guatemala's proclamation of martial law was still regarded here as a precautionary step taken by President Estrada Cabrera, preliminary to a break with Germany. It was believed that Honduras, Salvador and Nicaragua, the remaining uncommitted nations of Central America, are awaiting action by Guatemala and that they will announce their positions immediately after Guatemala speaks.

The United States has looked to Latin-America for moral support more than for material assistance, but there has been no disposition to undervalue the very material assistance that might be rendered if it became necessary. The total peace strength of Latin-America's armies is only 324,000 men, but the potential power is several times that and reports from the South American republics have indicated that no time will be lost in raising fighting forces to their full war strength.

SEEKS PEACE

WITH RUSSIA

The statement says that the Austro-Hungarian government, inspired by the same desire and continues:
"Therefore, both having common ends, it is not difficult to find means of arriving at a conclusion. This is much less difficult since his majesty, the emperor of Austria and king of Hungary, in perfect union with his allied monarchs wishes to live in future peace and friendship with the Russian people."

NO DEMOCRACY THERE.

Amsterdam, April 16.—Premier Tisza, of Hungary, is quoted in a Budapest dispatch as having said in the house of magnates:

"As regards the United States we have had occasion to express our point of view, since, as I have previously pointed out, the United States, to our regret, declared itself in a state of war with Germany, the logical conclusion necessarily had to be drawn. That is a precise and concrete fact having no need of explanation. I should make a mistake if I added any explanations."

Premier Tisza's statement was made in reply to an interpellation by Count Anton Sigay. Speaking of Russia the premier said:
"The situation is very clear. No one thinks of following in the internal affairs of the Russian state. The events which have taken place in Russia have changed in no way our interpretation of the aims of the monarchy and the nation in this war. I think that if now by any fresh statement I were to repeat the completely clear declaration made by the allied (Central) powers, I should not be strengthening our position, but only weakening it, and I should not be favoring the cause of peace which we all have before our eyes, but on the contrary should perhaps be compromising it. Consequently I beg the house to content itself with this statement."

GARRETT NEWS.

Garrett, Ind., April 16.—The Garrett volunteer firemen are making preparations for the annual tournament of the Northeastern Indiana Volunteer Firemen's association which will be held in this city on June 23, and which they hope to make the biggest and best tournament ever held by this association. A meeting of the executive committee was held in Fort Wayne yesterday to make arrangements for this meeting in June.

Miss Mary Dean, teacher of one of the sixth grades in the Garrett public schools, has organized a "broomstick brigade" in her room and the children are getting military instruction. A glance at the shoes, teeth and manicured nails of all these pupils is evidence of the effect of that part of the military rules they are endeavoring to obey, and the reverence they show Old Glory is very noticeable.

WILL ASK COUNCIL

TO DONATE FUNDS

W. J. Hosey Receives Copy of Resolution Made by Mayors.

Mayor Hosey expects to ask the city council for a "seed" fund with which to aid poor families of the city in putting out garden plots. Such action was agreed upon by mayors of leading Indiana cities at a meeting held in Indianapolis, a week ago.

Copy of the resolutions drawn up in conference following the meeting of the mayors of Indiana, meeting in Indianapolis, as representatives of our municipalities and their people, send to President Wilson and to Governor Goodrich our endorsement of their vigorous efforts to put this nation on a basis to carry out war to a successful conclusion, and to sustain at home our population through war times.

"We declare that there is opportunity for all to answer the call for national service in this crisis. We must wage war against a foreign foe with arms, food and money; we must at the same time wage a war against waste at home.

"We declare against the further waste of soil capable of food production, lying in and around our cities. We call on our city population for the idle and spare hours that can be diverted toward meeting a very serious food shortage that will confront our centers of population next fall and winter, and may threaten their peace if steps are not now taken by cities to supplement the country's food production.

"We join with the president and governor in the call for men to sustain the flag in war. We declare, however, that the call for national service cannot, in justice, fall solely on the men who are called to arms. Recognizing that the farmers of Indiana already are giving to the performance of national duty in the production of greater crops, we herewith join with Governor Goodrich in issuing a call to the people of Indiana towns and cities to mobilize the vacant yards, lots and greater tracts of lands and to volunteer in the great home-sustaining army of food production. We declare this to be a patriotic service only secondary to answering the call to the fighting line—an obligation for service that all committed to sustaining the national cause, cannot shirk, evade or delegate to others.

"We approve the plan outlined by Governor Goodrich to create a state food director, who shall mobilize under him crop, garden and truck-patch experts to direct this Indiana food production service.

"We advise the immediate creation in each town and city of an able directing committee that shall take up and direct the survey of lots; shall at once further the organization of their populations for food production; shall immediately call conferences with employers of labor and arrange for their co-operation; and shall organize the school children and other agencies that can be called into this great voluntary co-operative war service.

"We advise these committees to place themselves under the direction of the state food director, and to call on him to advise them to supply capable, skilled city and district directors for this food production, to the end that land, labor and seed may not be wasted and that the greatest production may result.

"We call on the state chamber of commerce to call on the local chambers to co-operate and to exert their great energies.

"We advise mayors to call on city councils for appropriations to carry on this work; and are advised by Governor Goodrich and Attorney General Stansbury that such appropriations are legal under the Indiana laws."

THE SCORPION
NOW INTERNED
BY THE TURKS

London, April 16.—(11:40 a. m.)—An official statement issued by the Turkish war office says that the American gunboat Scorpion has been interned.

HAD BEEN EXPECTED.

Washington, April 16.—The internment of the Scorpion has been expected here for some time and is perfectly in accord with the rules necessitating such action for a belligerent war vessel not leaving port within a prescribed time. About two weeks ago the navy department through the state department cabled Ambassador Elkus suggesting that the Scorpion leave Turkish waters for the Black sea, but Turkey objected to this on the ground that the sea was dominated by Russia, an enemy of Turkey's ally, Germany. Departure through the Dardanelles was thought impossible and as a result a part of the crew went through Austria into Switzerland before the break with the former country.

TO GIVE BENEFIT TEA.

The Woman's Union Label league has announced two social events for the near future. The first is a benefit tea at the home of Mrs. Amerod next Wednesday afternoon, between 2 and 4 o'clock, at which all members are urged to come and bring a friend. The second event was thought impossible and as a result a part of the crew went through Austria into Switzerland before the break with the former country.

At 25, Mrs. Winifred Redding has been elected to represent the league at the Indiana State Federation of Labor, at Anderson, May 8.

Major J. E. Miller Named
Commandant and John H.

Previous service men, including army, navy, marine or national guard, met in the assembly room of the court house Saturday evening and organized the Allen County Home Guard. There were 125 men present.

Major John E. Miller was named commandant of the new body and John H. Johnson, adjutant. A. D. Zuber was elected quartermaster and the following district captains were chosen: District No. 1, Sergt. Dan Kintz; district No. 2, John Jackson; district No. 3, Captain Otto Meyers; fourth district, Lieut. Peter A. Thompson.

The object of the organization shall be to assist the constituted authorities in this community in the preservation of the peace, the suppression of sedition and the promotion of the interests of the United States of America in the present war with Germany and her allies.

A constitution was adopted. There was some question about the name and the matter has been deferred until the next meeting, which will be held Saturday evening.

GIRLS OF BRYN MAWR MOBILIZE FOR WAR DUTY

Philadelphia, Pa., April 16.—In response to an invitation from the National League of Woman's Service, Bryn Mawr students met today to mobilize for war duty.

"If you know how to cook," the invitation says, "don't stop to learn how to become a motor driver. If you can milk a cow, don't undertake to study aviation. The country needs cooks and dairy maids right now and if that happens to be your job just now, stick to it and do it a little better than you have been doing it."

M. Carey Thomas, president of Bryn Mawr, presided at the meeting and among those on the program for addresses were Mrs. J. Willis Martin, state chairman of the league, and Miss Sallie Simpson, who was appointed to organize detachments at the woman's colleges.

PRESIDENT HAS GIVEN IMPETUS TO FOOD SLOGAN

Washington, April 16.—Fresh impetus was given to the nation-wide campaign for more food crops today by President Wilson's plea for unity of action in furthering America's success in the world war.

The president's appeal addressed to his "fellow countrymen" urged all the people to join in making the nation a unit for the preservation of its ideals and for the triumph of democracy but particularly emphasizing the need of growers concentrating their energies on planting of crops so that the United States might fulfill its task of feeding the armies and peoples who are fighting Germany. "Without abundant food, alike for the armies and the people at war," said the appeal, "the whole great enterprise upon which we have embarked will fail. Upon the farmers of the country, therefore, in large measure rests the fate of the war and the fate of the nations."

ADMIRAL GEORGE DEWEY.

All America mourned the death last January of Admiral George Dewey, hero of Manila bay and highest ranking officer of the United States.

Dewey's success was due to thorough schooling and discipline. He was born in Montpelier, Vt., Dec. 26, 1837, and was trained at Norwich Military academy at Annapolis. He became lieutenant in 1861 and was under Admiral Farragut on his famous drive to New Orleans.

Commander Smith of the Mississippi did not know the channel, so he called on Dewey for help.

"Do you know the channel, Dewey?" he asked. Dewey did not, but he answered, "Yes."

Under fire of forts on each side, the young lieutenant got the ship safely through the channel.

When the Spanish-American war began in 1898, Dewey was in command of the Asiatic fleet at Hong Kong. With six fighting ships he stole into Manila bay, arriving at Cavite, five miles off Manila, at dawn of May 1. Before him was Admiral Montojo's fleet of ten ships.

Dewey went straight for the enemy. The Spanish forts and ships belched fire at him, but he moved on closer without firing a shot.

When near enough, Dewey turned to Capt. Gridley of the Olympia and quietly said:

"You may fire when you are ready, Gridley."

Immediately the guns of the Asiatic fleet opened fire and when the battle was over, six hours later, Dewey found not an American was lost and only seven wounded, while 200 Spaniards were killed and between 500 and 700 wounded.

Dewey's victory was the greatest event of the war. Congress made him admiral by special act, in 1899, and the whole country sang his praise. He retired from active service and became a member of the naval advisory board, which office he held when he died.

FLAWS IN THE BASIC LAW ARE DISCUSSED

Flaws in the present constitution of Indiana were discussed at the meeting of the Allen County Constitutional forum held in the assembly room of the court house Sunday afternoon. All the modern uncompromising adjectives were used to describe the present basic law.
Miss Margaret Macphail and Samuel M. Foster were the principal speakers and they led in the attack against the present constitution of the state and pointed out many of its weaknesses.

DEMOCRACY WILL WIN.
Mayor Hoxey Speaks at Flag Raising on Laselle Street.

"The conflict into which we have entered is a war between Prussianism and democracy," said Mayor William J. Hoxey in his address before 1,500 people who gathered at the flag raising ceremony at Laselle street, Sunday afternoon. The mayor said that democracy would triumph and that a government founded upon the blasphemous doctrine of the divine right of kings is doomed. Peter Ofenloch, councilman of the Seventh ward, presided as chairman. Short addresses were delivered by Rev. Charles A. Thiele, pastor of St. Peter's church, and Frank Biemer. The flag was raised by Thomas B. Toomey, a civil war veteran, 85 years old. A salute was fired by a squad from Company E. The Jefferson drum corps also assisted in the program.

Learn to Sleep Well.
Sleeplessness is often induced by constipation and indigestion. When this is the case take Chamberlain's Tablets to correct these disorders, also walk three or four miles every day. Eat a light supper, as a full meal for supper is often a disturber of sleep and digestion, too. You will find these tablets to be one of the best medicines you have ever become acquainted with.

DAILY BIBLE READINGS FOR THE HOME

John 12:1-11.

1 Then Jesus six days before the passover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 There they made him a supper; and Martha served; but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair; and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.

4 Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him,

5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

6 This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein.

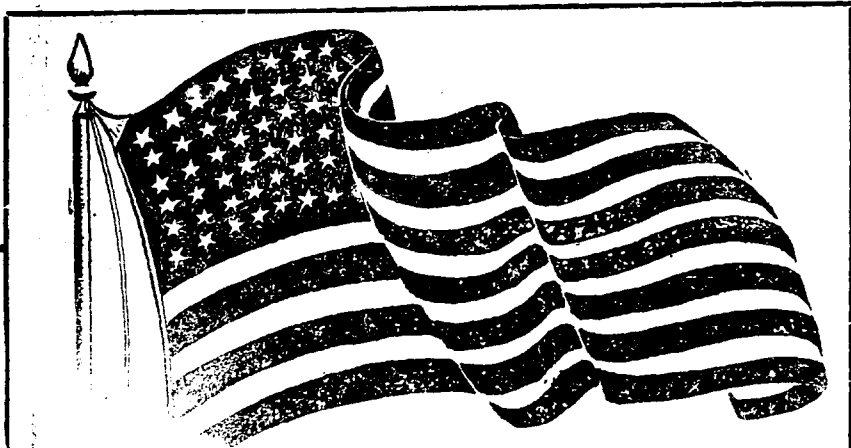

7 Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.

8 For the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.

9 Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there; and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.

10 But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death:

11 Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

The President's Appeal.

The address of President Wilson to the people of the nation carries its own appeal. No words can add to its strength or make its note louder or clearer. It is a call to all Americans to be loyally and devotedly American. In a time like this no sentiment, interest or personal concern can be set above the security of the nation and the virtuous triumph of its arms. The same duty devolves upon all. Everybody can do something to advance the cause of their country, which is the cause of democracy the whole world around. Whatever it is that each one finds it his part to do should be his ungrudging, his freely-given service to his nation.

"The supreme test of the nation has come," says President Wilson. "We must all speak, act and serve together." Of a surety we must, or the day lies not far ahead when we shall have little of a country for which to "speak, act and serve." If America is to prove herself a nation in any true sense—a nation with a spirit knitting all together into a homogeneous, strong and advancing people, loving their land, cherishing its democracy and ready to uphold and defend their liberty and institutions at all costs, this hour of trial must prove it. It is the test of those things that make nations. We have a vast and fertile territory, we have wealth beyond estimate, we have a civilization in many ways has led and is leading the world, we have more than one hundred millions of people assembled from all lands—we have every material resource and development that can make for power and advancement. Have we the spirit that alone can make a nation? Some deny it. The issue of this crisis will tell that story gloriously or with shame.

There is a rapidly growing sign that the people of the United States are going to prove themselves worthy of their fathers, worthy of the priceless heritage had from the fathers. War entails some measure of sacrifice to all. Of some much may be required—life itself. Of those whose high privilege it cannot be to lay down life there is none who cannot be of service. To the man who must bear arms and the woman whose heroic part must be to support the anguish of dread and the pain of bereavement there comes alike the call to duty. And to all others is vouchsafed a high and useful part in the cause of their country. Some must work and some must yield their wealth and all must give to the nation the best of their spirit and unflinching and unflinching good faith in its rectitude and its right to triumph.

The production of food, the making of munitions, the bearing of financial burdens, the support of industry and the maintenance of commerce and, in short, the keeping of the nation in strength and activity for the trials it must take upon itself by land and sea, require of all of us ready and spirited service. All men cannot go to the fighting line; all women cannot serve in the Red Cross. Upon such as cannot render these services of duty must fall the tasks of supporting in every way those whose lot takes them to the front.

It is the "supreme test of the nation." We "must all speak, act and serve together." President Wilson calls one hundred million people to the colors. There must be no laggards in the service; no strugglers behind the nation's advancing train.

If the senate will acquit itself with the credit and honor that the house did in dealing with the seven-billion dollar war bill and then if the two will bend themselves to that other essential task of giving the nation an army bill that will prove a strength and not a weakness, the country will be about ready to dismiss the lawmakers with the tribute of "well-done, good and faithful servants; enter into your reward next voting time."

Latin-America is displaying democratic spirit and calculated good sense in admirable proportions. Nothing better will come out of the world war to enrich the western world than the bringing together of the republics of the great southern continent in spirit and purpose with the good mother of them all.

WAR ON CATS, NOT DOGS.

Editor of The Sentinel:— War is declared on overt chickens and unleashed dogs by Chief Leuz. Why not declare war on the alley and backyard cats? Because, all summer long, in our growing gardens our birds, the strongest allies of the gardener, are on guard. Keen-eyed and quick in action, they discover and destroy the countless insects that prey on our growing vegetables. Without them there would be menger crops. But the most dangerous and destructive enemy of our birds is the soft-purring domestic cat. So, why not declare war on the cats and let us have more bur-glar-alarm dogs to protect our homes night and day? Away with the cat, the enemy of our song birds. JACK D. Fort Wayne, Ind., April 14, 1917.

UNION IS STRENGTH.

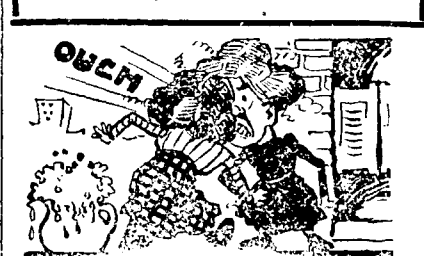

Well folks, a young editorial today, kinda serious like. These days while the eagle is screeching don't be a lang-naul, left-handed thinker, or a pacifist. Remember the scenario writer Aesop? That boy slapped off a few yarns that were cuckoos. For getting a cigar every time he hit the mark he'd have a corner on the tobacco market. Here's one of his after dinner speeches that should be let filter through the think tank. The one about old man that had a flock of boys who were always getting into a jam with one another. It made the old boy daffy after trying every way he could to keep the young msters all in the same boat, but nothing doing, they kept growing at one another and were always there with a snap. One day the old gent got a hunch. He went out and got a bunch of kindling wood and asked each one to try and break it over his knee. They all tried, but each one struck out. Then he untied the bundle and gave each one a stick and then told them to do the same stunt over again. Why Leonard it was easy meat—nothing to it. He says to the sons: "There my sons, united you will be more than a match for your enemies, but if you scrap with one another and separate, your weakness will leave you open to those who attack you."

So customers stick together. Everybody in step.

About Rheumatism. Do you know that more than nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply muscular rheumatism due to cold or damp, or chronic rheumatism which attacks the larger joints, knees, hips and shoulders. Neither of these varieties require any internal treatment. All you need is a free application of Chamberlain's Liniment with vigorous massage to effect a cure. Try it.—Advertisement.

MAKING A CONSTITUTION

PREPARED BY
JOHN A. LAPP,

Director of the Indiana Bureau of Legislative Information.

THE BILL OF RIGHTS.

(Copyright 1917 by John A. Lapp.)

The United States constitution and every state constitution have a bill of rights which is designed to protect certain rights of life, liberty and property which from long usage people have come to recognize as sacred. Many of these rights have become so intimately a part of the people's conscience and life that a violation of them is hardly possible even without constitutional check, but the people make doubly sure by clearly declaring them in their constitutions.

For centuries the struggle for religious freedom raged throughout the world and was finally settled forever in favor of freedom. From the earliest state constitution the principle has been embodied in the fundamental laws of the states and we recognize it universally.

"All men shall have the right to worship God according to the dictates of their own consciences."

"No preference shall be given by law to any creed and no man shall be compelled to attend, erect, or support any place of worship against his consent."

"No religious test shall be required as a qualification for any office."

"No money shall be drawn from the treasury for the support of any religious or theological institution."

Thus run the phrases of the bill of rights of Indiana in safeguarding religious freedom against the assaults of bigotry and prejudice.

These provisions in the state constitution protect against state and local laws and official acts while similar provisions in the federal constitution protect against the laws and acts of the federal government.

The right to speak and write freely one's opinion is guaranteed by all modern constitutions subject only to the limitation that a person shall be liable for the abuse of the privilege. Free speech is the corner-stone of English liberty and we inherited it by bold assertion of the right. Throughout our whole history it has been fostered. We have allowed grave abuses at times because it seemed better to allow error and abuse to correct error and abuse rather than to interfere with a right so fundamental.

The United States constitution declares, "Congress shall make no law . . . abridging the freedom of speech of the press" and the Indiana state constitution declares that: "No law shall be passed restraining the free interchange of thought and opinion or restricting the right to speak, write or print freely on any subject whatever, but for the abuse of that right every person shall be responsible."

In the excitement of great crises and in the turmoil of politics there is often danger that the majority in power may attempt to suppress individual opinion or the opinion of the minority. Sometimes there appears justification for such action when vicious attacks are made against those which were hunted against Washington and Lincoln in times of national distress; but in the long run, freedom to express the right opinion is better than the power to suppress the wrong opinion. "The power to suppress opinion is illegitimate," said John Stuart Mill in his great work "On Liberty." "The best government has no more title to it than the worst."

Men may not slander nor libel other men without standing the consequences. Free speech and press is not a license to produce falsehoods about others with impunity. Every man has a constitutional right to appeal to the courts to protect him in his person, property or reputation. It is not to protect miscreants who slander and libel but to enable people to publish the truth for justifiable ends. Primarily it is a protection against arbitrary action of any government which seeks to suppress opinions contrary to its purpose.

"Every man's house is his castle," is a phrase which expresses the right of the people to be secure in their homes against any unlawful interference. It is an intolerable condition when public officials or police officers may enter a man's house to make a search without a warrant.

Americans have protested against any such searches and from the days when English officers claimed the right to search the homes of the colonists for smuggled goods it has been a cardinal principle. In those days James Otis, who left the employ of the crown to defend the colonists against resistance, declared: "Now one of the most essential branches of English liberty is the freedom of one's house, and whilst he is quiet, he is as well guarded as a prince in his castle." This writ if it should be declared legal would totally annihilate this privilege. Custom house officers may enter our homes when they please. We are commanded to permit their entry. Their menial servants may enter, may break locks, bars and everything in their way. . . . It appears to me the worst instrument of arbitrary power, the most destructive of English liberty and the fundamental principle of law that ever was found in an English law book."

To safeguard those rights forever, the federal constitution declared: "The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures shall not be violated and no warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by oath and affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched and the persons or things to be seized." This clause protects against search and seizure by federal officials and not against search and seizure by state officials but Indiana adopted exactly the same clause in its constitution and thus safeguarded the people against any search except upon a warrant properly issued to search a particular place for particular things.

The right of trial by jury came to us out of the struggle of the English people for liberty and was adopted by this country without change. Our constitutions safeguard this right as it was given to them from England and everywhere we recognize that every man shall have the right to the "lawful judgment of his peers."

"In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury of the state and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have assistance of counsel for his defense."

Thus declares the constitution of the United States. The rights enumerated are thus protected against national laws and national officials. Substantially the same declaration is found in most of the state constitutions and thus the states are kept from interfering with the rights of trial by jury.

In civil cases also, the federal and state constitutions guarantee a trial by jury when the cause is large enough to warrant it—the provision of the United States constitution requires that the amount in controversy exceed twenty dollars.

In practice many cases are decided by the judge but in all criminal cases and most civil cases a jury trial may be demanded in state and federal courts.

The right to trial is safeguarded beyond attack but the right may be nullified if care is not taken to see that the judgment is the "fair judgment of his peers" and not the judgment of a packed jury selected by an unfair system. The constitution should go further than merely to declare the right to a jury trial and require a fair method of selection of jurors. Without it the mere provision for a jury trial may not amount to much.

In many states the idea is developing that civil cases may be decided by a three-fourths or five-sixths vote of a jury instead of requiring a unanimous vote. This prevents the stubborn man on a jury from preventing a decision in the face of the facts. The question will undoubtedly be considered by the Indiana convention.

QUESTIONS FOR INVESTIGATION.

1. Why is it best to permit free speech when men misuse the privilege.
2. What possible evils might result if the government of the state or nation had a right to prevent criticism of its acts.
3. Can a man be compelled to allow officials to examine his books and papers? Under what right does the government inspect factories or food establishments or examine accounts of public utilities?
4. What are the advantages and disadvantages of verdicts by less than a unanimous jury?
5. How are jurors selected?

TRY IT AND SEE!

Lift your corns or calluses off with fingers! Doesn't hurt a bit!

A noted Cincinnati chemist discovered a new ether compound and called it frezone and it now can be had in tiny bottles as here shown for a few cents—on any drug store.

You simply apply a few drops of frezone upon a tender corn or painful callus and instantly the soreness disappears. Then shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you can just lift it off with the fingers.

No pain, not a bit of soreness, either when applying frezone or afterwards. It doesn't even irritate skin.

Hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes, also toughened calluses just shivel up and lift off so easy. It is wonderful! Seems magical. It works like a charm. Genuine frezone has a yellow label. Don't accept any except with the yellow label.—Advertisement.

PRESIDENT'S APPEAL TO THE PEOPLE

"The Supreme Test of the Nation Has Come; We Must All Speak, Act and Serve Together."—Woodrow Wilson.

My Fellow-Countrymen: The entrance of our own beloved country into the grim and terrible war for democracy and human rights which has shaken the world creates so many problems of national life and action which call for immediate consideration and settlement that I hope you will permit me to address to you a few words of earnest counsel and appeal with regard to them.

We are rapidly putting our navy upon an effective war footing, and are about to create and equip a great army, but these are the simplest parts of the great task to which we have addressed ourselves.

There is not a single selfish element, so far as I can see, in the cause we are fighting for. We are fighting for what we believe and wish to be the rights of mankind and for the future peace and security of the world.

To do this great thing worthily and successfully we must devote ourselves to the service without regard to profit or material advantage and with an energy and intelligence that will rise to the level of the enterprise itself.

We must realize to the full how great the task is and how many things how many kinds and elements of capacity and service and self-sacrifice it involves.

The Things We Must Do.

These, then, are the things we must do and do well, besides fighting—the things without which mere fighting would be fruitless:

We must supply abundant food for ourselves and for our armies and our seamen not only but also for a large part of the nations with whom we have now made common cause, in whose support and by whose sides we shall be fighting;

We must supply ships by the hundreds out of our shipyards to carry to the other side of the sea, submarines or no submarines, what will every day be needed there, and abundant materials out of our fields and mines and our factories with which not only to clothe and equip our own forces on land and sea, but also to clothe and equip the armies of the nations with whom we are fighting; to help clothe and equip the armies with which we are co-operating in Europe, and to keep the looms and manufacturing in raw materials; coal to keep the fires going in ships at sea and in the furnaces of hundreds of factories across the sea; steel out of which to make arms and ammunition; to help here and there; rails for work on railways back of the fighting fronts; locomotives and rolling stock to take the place of those every day going to pieces; mules, horses, cattle or labor and military service; everything with which the people of England and France and Italy and Russia have usually supplied themselves but cannot now afford the men, the materials or the machinery to make.

Efficiency Great Need.

It is evident to every thinking man that our industries, in farms, in shipyards, in the mines, in the factories, must be made more prolific and more efficient than ever, and that they must be more economically managed and better adapted to the particular requirements of our task than they have been; and what I want to say is that the men and the women who devote their thought and their energy to these things will be serving the country and conducting the fight for peace and freedom just as truly and just as effectively as the men on the battlefield or in the trenches.

The industrial forces of the country, men and women alike, will be a great national, a great international service army—a notable and honored host engaged in the service of the nation and the world, the efficient friends and saviors of free men everywhere.

Thousands, nay, hundreds of thousands, of men otherwise liable to military service will of right and necessity be excused from that service and assigned to the fundamental, sustaining work of the fields, and factories, and mines, and they will be as much part of the great patriotic forces of the nation as the men under fire.

This Word to Farmers.

I take the liberty, therefore, of addressing this word to the farmers of the country and to all who work on the farms: The supreme need of our own nation and of the nations with whom we are co-operating is an abundance of supplies, and especially of food-stuffs. The importance of an adequate food supply, especially for the present year, is superlative.

Without abundant food, alike for the armies and the peoples new at war, the whole great enterprise upon which we have embarked will break down and fail.

The world's food reserves are low. Not only during the present emergency but for some time after peace shall have come both our own people and a large proportion of the people of Europe must rely on the harvests in America.

Upon the farmers of this country, therefore, in large measure rests the fate of the war and the fate of the nations. May the nation not count upon them to omit no step that will increase the production of their land or that will bring about the most effective co-operation in the sale and distribution of their products?

The time is short. It is of the most imperative importance that everything possible be done and done immediately to make sure of large harvests. I call upon young men and old alike and upon the able-bodied boys of the land to accept and act upon this duty—to turn their hosts to the farms and make certain that no pains and no labor is lacking in this great matter.

Appeal to the South.

I particularly appeal to the farmers of the south to plant abundant food-stuffs as well as cotton. They can show their patriotism in no better or more convincing way than by resisting the great temptation of the present price of cotton and helping, helping upon a great scale, to feed the nation and the peoples everywhere who are fighting for their liberties and for our own. The variety of their crops will be the visible measure of their comprehension of their national duty.

The government of the United States and the governments of the several states stand ready to co-operate. They will do everything possible to assist farmers in securing an adequate supply of seed, an adequate force of laborers when they are most needed at harvest time and the means of expediting shipments of fertilizers and farm machinery, as well as of the crops themselves when harvested.

The course of trade shall be as unhampered as it is possible to make it, and there shall be no unwarranted manipulation of the nation's food supply by those who handle it on its way to the consumer. This is our opportunity to demonstrate the efficiency of a great democracy, and we shall not fall short of it.

This I say to the middlemen of every sort, whether they are handling our foodstuffs or our raw materials of manufacture or the products of our mills and our factories. The eyes of the country will be especially upon you.

This is your opportunity for signal service, efficient and disinterested. The country expects you, as it expects all others, to forego unusual profits, to organize and expedite shipments of supplies of every kind, but especially of food, with an eye to the service you are rendering and in the spirit of those who enlist in the ranks, for their people, not for themselves.

I shall confidently expect you to deserve and win the confidence of people of every sort and station.

Great Task of the Railways.

To the men who run the railways of the country, whether they be managers or operative employees, let me say that the railways are the arteries of the nation's life, and that upon them rests the immense responsibility of seeing to it that those services suffering no obstruction of any kind, no inefficiency or slackened power.

To the merchant let me suggest the motto, "Small profits and quick service," and to the shipbuilder the thought that the life of the war depends upon him. The food and the war supplies must be shipped across the seas, no matter how many ships are sent to the bottom. The places of those that go down must be supplied and supplied at once.

To the miner let me say that he stands where the farmer does: The world waits on him. If he slackens or fails, armies and statesmen are helpless. He also is enlisted in the great service army. The manufacturer does not need to be told, I hope, that the nation looks to him to speed and perfect every process, and I want to remind his employees that their service is absolutely indispensable and is counted on by every man who loves the country and its liberties.

Let me suggest also that every one who creates or cultivates a garden helps and helps greatly to solve the problem of the feeding of the nation, and that every housewife who practices strict economy puts herself in the ranks of those who serve the nation. Wastefulness is wicked.

This is the time for America to correct her unpardonable fault of wastefulness and extravagance. Let every man and every woman assume the duty of careful, prudent use and expenditure as a public duty, as a dictate of patriotism which no one can now expect ever to be excused or forgiven for ignoring.

In the hope that this statement of the needs of the nation in this hour of supreme crisis may stimulate those to whom it comes and remind all who need reminder of the solemn duties of a time such as the world has never seen before, I beg that all editors and publishers everywhere will give as prominent publication and as wide circulation as possible to this appeal.

I venture to suggest also to all advertising agencies that they would perhaps render a very substantial and timely service to the country if they would give it widespread repetition. And I hope that clergymen will not think the theme of it an unworthy or inappropriate subject of comment and homily from their pulpits.

The supreme test of the nation has come. We must all speak, act and serve together!

Drinking of Water

(BY W. LUCAS, M. D.)

The general conclusions of the latest Medical Scientists prove that drinking plenty of pure water both between meals and with one's meals is beneficial to health. It has now been proven by means of the X-rays and actual tests upon many healthy young men that the drinking of large amounts of water with meals is often beneficial. Therefore if you want to keep healthy drink plenty of pure water (not ice water), both with your meals and between meals. If you ever suffer from backache, lumbago, rheumatism, or any of the symptoms of kidney trouble—such as deep colored urine, sediment in urine, getting out of bed at night frequently and other troublesome effects, take Anuric (double strength) before meals. These Anuric Tablets can be obtained at drug stores.

DISPLAYS OLD FLAG FIRST TIME IN YEARS

Mrs. James Polk, widow of the late Colonel Polk and mother of Mrs. Fred Graffe, 1124 Fulton street, has brought out for the second time since the civil war a flag which she made herself. The following account of it appears in the Vabash Plain-Dealer: "An old-time worn flag is now on display in the window of the residence of Mrs. James Polk, widow of the late Colonel Polk. This flag was made by Mrs. Polk in 1863. She sent to Cincinnati for the silk and went to North Manchester to use a sewing machine to stitch it. The flag waved over the headquarters of her husband who was commander of the Eighth Indiana regiment during the civil war at the siege of Vicksburg. Colonel Polk asked his friends who returned home during the siege to have Mrs. Polk make him a flag and send it to him. Mrs. Polk gladly made the banner and when it was completed she sent it to her husband, who floated it over his headquarters at Vicksburg, where it remained until General Lee surrendered to General Grant. This flag has been thrown to the breeze but once since when General Grant was elected president.

The flag when new was about four feet by three feet and stars were arranged in a blue field which is now faded."

Be Cheerful.

It is not so easy to be cheerful when one is ill. We may, however, seek the cause of our despondency and perhaps remove it. When it is caused by indigestion or constipation, as is frequently the case, Chamberlain's Tablets may be depended upon to correct it in almost every instance.—Advertisement.

WASHINGTON SCHOOL P.-T. WORK Installs Bathroom in Schoolhouse for Use of Children.

The parent-teacher club of the Washington school has taken a big stride toward civic betterment of public school pupils of its district in the way of placing a bathroom with all equipment in the schoolhouse. The work has just been completed and a woman living near the building has been engaged to give the children baths every Friday at the expense of the parent-teacher club. Moreover any child in need of new underwear, hose, waist or garters or just buttons on the clothing is replenished, as the needs of the case demand. Children from homes not supplied with bathrooms are the ones who receive the benefit of this movement for health and comfort as well as right ideas of cleanliness and duty to one's self. The money for the project has been raised by the club in various ways with some help from the school children in the way of collecting old papers and selling tickets for entertainments. The officers of the club and the various chairmen and their assistants who have been instrumental in bettering the environment of children are: Mrs. Simon Ackerman, president; Mrs. W. B. Platt, Mrs. C. M. Beall, Mrs. Henry Jordan, Mrs. W. I. Battin, Mrs. Herman Pollak, Mrs. Frank Bond, Mrs. Harvey Crane, Mrs. Hugh Keegan, and many others including Miss Armstrong, principal of the building.

Hanna School P.-T. Club.
A meeting of the parent-teacher club of the Hanna school will be held in the school auditorium next Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The entire program will be given by men. One subject to be considered will be "Good Health an Essential for Good Work." Another will be "Manual Training, Its Correlation With the Essentials," the third subject is "A Common Sense Curriculum," and the fourth will be, "What a Good School Can Do for the Child from a Business Man's Standpoint."

AT THE MAJESTIC.

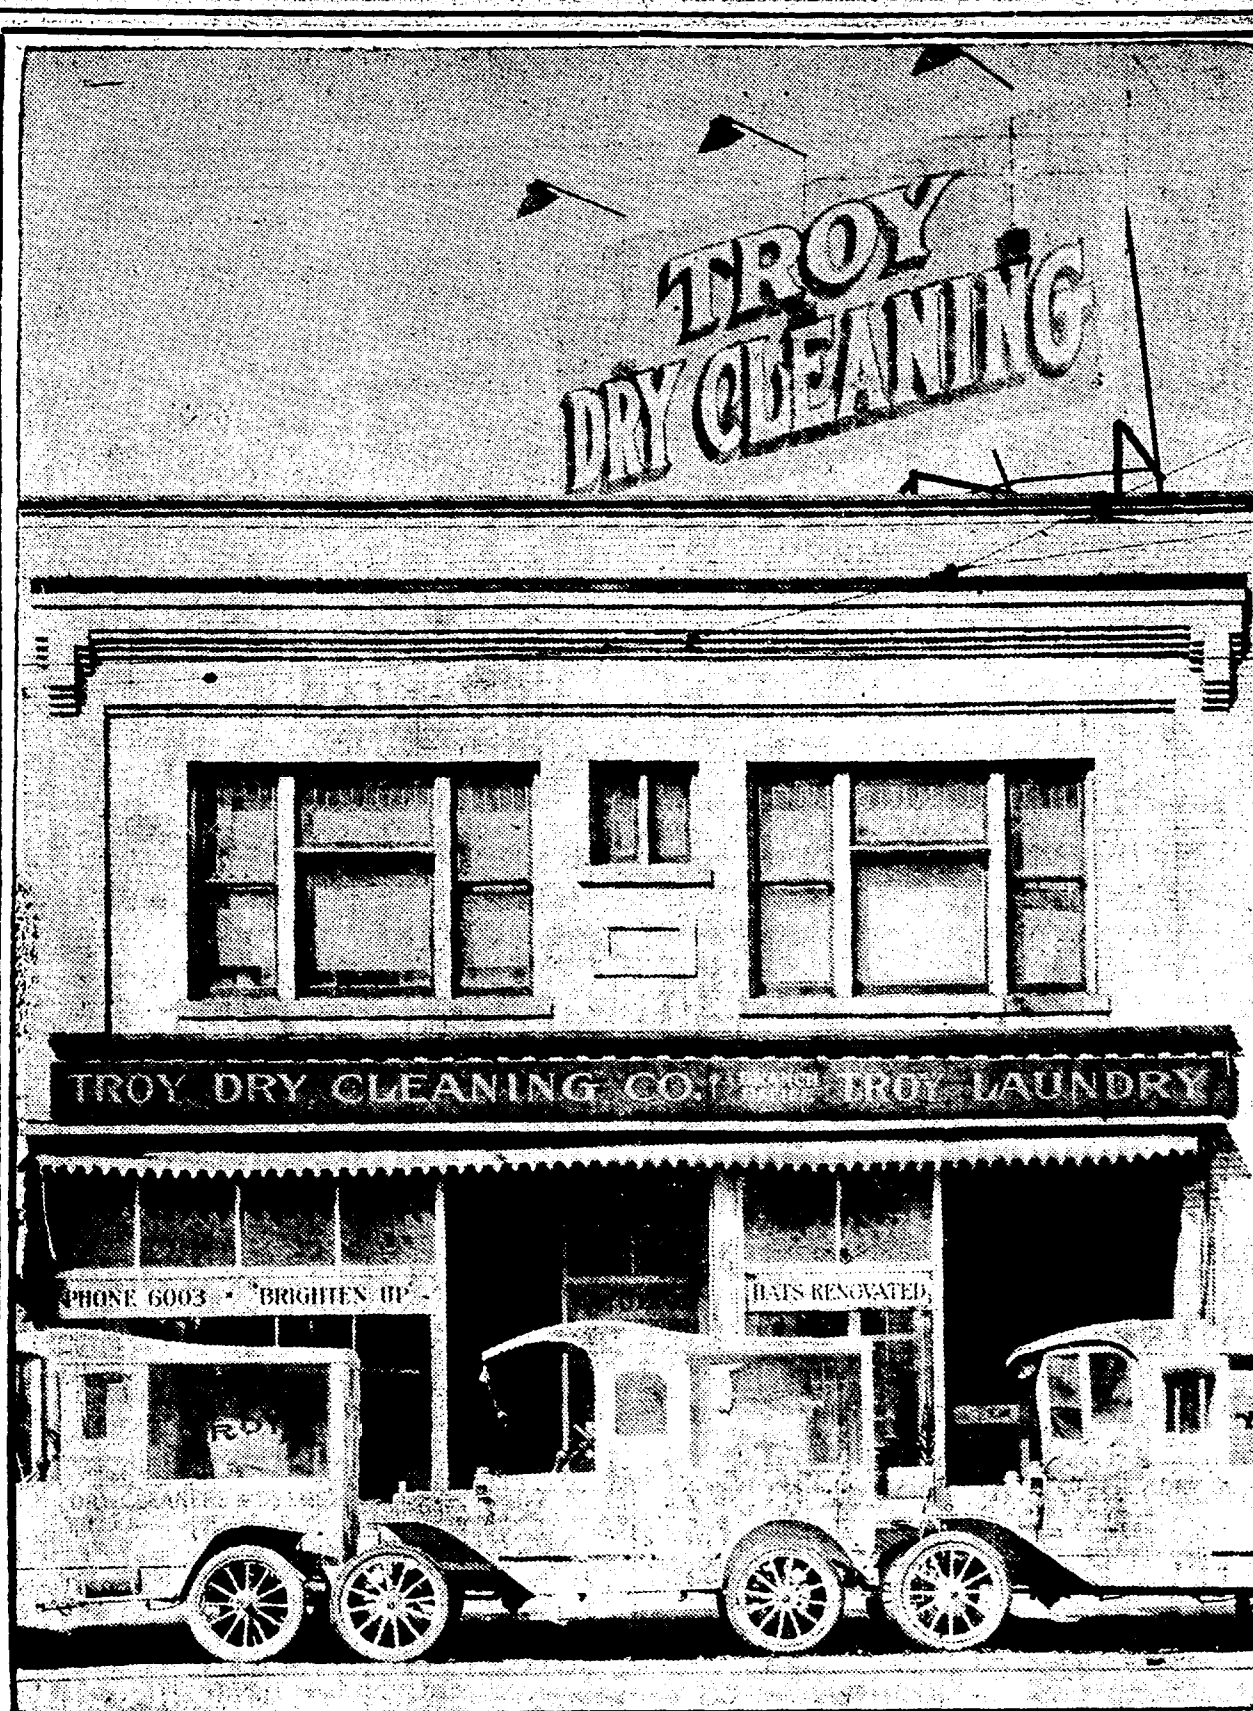

"A World of Pleasure" Tonight.
"A World of Pleasure," the huge, glittering, tuneful Winter Garden spectacular, will be the attraction at the Majestic tonight, coming to this city following its profitable and pleasing engagements in New York, Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia, San Francisco, New Orleans and other large cities. Prodigious very aptly expresses this colossal entertainment which in every particular is huge and dazzling, going its predecessors one better. In the present production the costumes are perhaps more picturesque, if a little bizarre, and more colorful and certainly richer in texture and more costly than those employed in any previous Winter Garden production. And when it comes to novelty of scenes, there are sufficient to please the taste of even the most discriminating. Interpreting the principal roles is an all-star cast, while assisting them is a company of over 100. The play was staged by C. C. Huff, a lovely little Garden wizard of stagecraft. The music is by Sigmund Romberg, and the dialogue and lyrics by Harold Atteridge.

AT THE PALACE

IT'S A WINNER.

New Palace Has a Champion Bill This Week.

The New Palace has achieved a bill that starts right off on high with every cylinder hitting and keeps going until the lovely finale of Harrison Reynolds' engaging little musical comedy, The Lingerie Shop, which concludes the smashup show. The bill opens with the Cycling McNutt, an entirely new notion of cycling novelties, in which an acrobatic clown, a girl with a form that would put the green in Annette Kellerman's eyes, and a nitte of a child who can do tricks on a bicycle and sing at the same time, can turn flip flops and make a curtain speech, furnish some of the fun. Jessie and Mabel Miller, a sister act of real distinction, offers a girl who can play the piano and the piano accompanist and who can fairly make a concert sing, and a lovely little partner whose dancing of the hula hula gives a new conception of that much abused dance. Fred Holmes and Lulu Wells' skit, "On the Door Step," is delightful mingling of com-

Postum... Instant Postum Grape-Nuts and Post Toasties

No other food is quite so fine for building brain and brawn as Grape-Nuts. No other drink quite so excellent for the relief of harrassed "coffee nerves" as Postum. No other cereal breakfast food quite so delicious and satisfying as Post Toasties.

The trip through the plant is interesting. You are invited to take it when you come to Battle Creek. It conveys an idea of the immensity of the pure-food movement.

Competent guides are always in attendance.

Postum Cereal Company, Battle Creek, Mich.

edy chatter, clever song and sprightly dance done by two polished vaudeville folks. Their songs are all new and their comedy talk is laugh evoking.

Grace Emmett has brought "Mrs. Murphy's Second Husband" to the New Palace again. This hilarious Irish character comedienne is an old friend and grows more lovable every time she comes here. In her company this year is a former Fort Wayne girl, Miss Mayme Pink, who is remembered by scores of her friends of ten years ago, when she lived on South Broadway.

Olive Brisco, a singing comedienne, who is different from the others, has some amusing numbers in her repertoire, the best being her song comparing the present with the days of 1861. Harrison Reynolds, the eminent light comedian, and his haberdashery shop, with its lingerie adjunct, furnishes fifteen minutes of laughs and eye filling visions of feminine loveliness in various states of dishabille. Mr. Reynolds, as the young Britisher, with the funny notions about how to run a store, is a riot of fun and he's got enough pretty girls to keep a sea shore resort supplied.

MALLOY

Thinness Easily Overcome.

(From "Health and Beauty.")

Further evidence is being presented almost daily that a recent compound of new chemical elements combined in a tablet with hypophosphites is in reality proving a blessing to the abnormally thin men and women, for it can be demonstrated beyond a doubt that a regular course of three or four months' treatment brings an increase in weight of from 10 to 20 pounds, with a decided improvement of health and color, too. For self administration the most popular form is to be found in three grain hypo-nucleic tablets, obtainable in sealed packages from the best apothecary shops, with full directions.

Forty-Four Girls and Boys Receive First Communion.

A class of ninety-two boys and girls were confirmed at St. Mary's Catholic church Sunday afternoon by the Rt. Rev. Bishop Herman Joseph Alard. Forty-eight of these received their first communion in 1916, but because of the illness of the bishop at this time, were not confirmed. In the morning forty-four members of this year's class received first communion. At 8 o'clock the rector, Rt. Rev. Mgr. John H. Oechtering celebrated high mass. He also delivered the sermon. Together with the first communicants, the members of the class of 1916, approached the holy table at this time. At 2:30 in the afternoon Bishop Alard administered the sacrament of confirmation to a class composed of the ninety-two children and eight adults. Rev. George Hauser delivered the sermon which preceded the confirmation.

TWO ARE INJURED IN MOTORCYCLE MISHAP

Eva McKinley, aged 14, sustained deep cuts about the head and body bruises, and Howard McKinley, 23, 1607 Deach avenue, had his right leg broken when the motorcycle on which they were both riding, ran against an automobile, Saturday evening. McKinley struck the stationary automobile, because his niece on the handlebars of the motorcycle obstructed his view, he said. The automobile, which belonged to F. B. Homscher, 1118 Hoagland avenue, was standing at the curb near the intersection of Burgess street and St. Mary's avenue. When the motorcycle sideswiped the auto both McKinley and his niece tumbled from the machine, which traveled on for several yards. The girl was thrown against a tree. The pair were removed to the St. Joseph hospital.

WILL BE IN PARADE.

All members of the girls' brigade, recently organized here, are requested by Lieutenant Litsey to meet Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the South Wayne school to prepare for the parade to be given in connection with the celebration of the Battle of Lexington next Thursday. This meeting will take the place of the one scheduled for Wednesday evening at the Harman school. Only those who have drilled are asked to attend, as the enrollment is now complete.

Twenty-one years old this week! When we stop to consider, it seems but a short span of years since this store was in its swaddling clothes, and now it has attained the great age of twenty-one! And so, with thoughts of the great new store, whose plans are well under way, there is a deal of pleasure in the thought that we can reciprocate again the kindly feeling to our thousands of loyal customers with

TO MOBILIZE

Have Been Received by Officers of the National Guard.

316 MEN ACCEPTED
IN TWO BATTERIES

Both Artillery and the Infantry Need More Recruits.

With the time drawing nigh when orders for mobilization are received for the local units of state militia, officers of the artillery and infantry Monday morning received instructions from their department how to mobilize when the call is sounded.

Thus far three hundred and sixteen men have been accepted in the two batteries. Of this number 216 have chosen Battery D, while the remainder have selected Battery B. It is the plan of the officers to get permission from the government to transfer some of the best men of the old battery as officers in the new organization.

Both branches of the service are in need of many more recruits and although the rush of a week ago has subsided, a few men now and then come into the office to file applications. Saturday afternoon eighteen men were secured by the batteries. Monday morning there were ten more.

The government has purchased three carloads of food for the horses of the battery in this city. The hay and grain was purchased from Fort Wayne merchants.

Stage Benefit Show.

Arrangements have been completed with the management of the Temple Stock company and the captains of the battery and infantry to stage a benefit show at the Temple theater, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week. The current play, "Trail of the Lonesome Pine," will be given. Tickets will be placed in the hands of young ladies in the stores of the city.

Hartford City Lads Join.

With a large flag floating before them and accompanied by a delegation of citizens from their home town, twenty-nine youths from Hartford City, made up of all the young men in the senior class of the high school there, marched down main street from the interurban station to recruiting headquarters, Saturday afternoon. The youths all passed examination and are enrolled in the coast artillery. They were sent away to Columbus, Ohio, Sunday night.

Seventy Recruits Sunday.

On the Sabbath day services were enrolled for army service. Many of the number came from towns near Fort Wayne. Captain Ryan expects at least 100 men before the sun goes down Monday. Recruiting was brisk all day Monday and many of the young men were from Fort Wayne.

JOHN'S HEART HURT
TO EXTENT OF $1,000

John C. Conrad and Nina Poltz were to have been married on March 27, 1917, the date which was agreeable to both says John. However, when the day arrived and after he had made all arrangements she refused to marry him, he says.

Now John has begun suit against his former sweetheart asking that the court give him judgment of $1,000 as heart balm. In his complaint on a breach of contract for marriage he alleges that he made all preparations for the marriage at a great expense and then was forced to call it off. He charges that by reason of this he was caused to suffer much embarrassment.

In the complaint he also states that he is still willing to marry Nina, but that she has refused even to set another date. E. L. Siebold is his attorney.

BRITISH TANK
SHIP IS SUNK
BY A TORPEDO

New York, April 16.—The British tank ship Narragansett, a ship of 9,260 tons and one of the largest carriers of bulk oil ever built, has been torpedoed and sunk somewhere off the Irish coast, according to word brought here today by officers on an arriving ship. The Narragansett was owned by the Anglo-American Oil company represented here by A. E. Ames. At the office of the company it was said no word of the vessel had been received, although several reports that she had met with disaster had reached here from unofficial sources. The Narragansett was last reported when she left here for a British port on March 5. She was built in 1903 at Greenock, Scotland, was 512 feet long and could carry 11,000 tons of oil.

NEW CLASS TAKES UP
HOSPITAL SUPPLY WORK

Dr. Macbeth Volunteers to Fit Up Room for Red Cross Society.

The new class in the making of hospital supplies began work Monday morning at Red Cross headquarters on East Berry street and will continue throughout the remainder of the week under the direction of Miss Mary Johnson, expert Red Cross nurse from Chicago. Each day this week Miss Johnson will be assisted by four different members of last week's class.

At the end of the week the two classes will meet at an address by Dr. E. J. McOscar on the different uses of the bandages, drains and other things that have been made. This will be followed by a written examination, the papers being forwarded to the headquarters at Washington, where they will be graded. Those who pass will be eligible to teach. Those who assisted Miss Johnson Monday were Mrs. George Beers, Mrs. Hunter, Mrs. McDonald and Miss Wilhelm.

Dr. A. H. Macbeth has very generously consented to fit up one of the rooms on the second floor of the headquarters for the use of the class in the home care of the sick. He will bring the necessary articles from his hospital on Lewis street. One room will be fitted up this week and other rooms later, if needed.

The ladies' drill team of Yeoman lodge, No. 376, will give a benefit dance Tuesday evening at Tanner's hall, the proceeds from which is to be donated to the local Red Cross chapter.

Miss Gwinn Will Sing.

Miss Maud Gwinn, contralto, will be heard in the Red Cross benefit patriotic entertainment to be given at the Majestic theater on Thursday evening by Mrs. Monica Best Boggs and her class of pupils and other well known talent of the city.

Meeting of a class in first aid Red Cross relief work under the direction of Dr. Carrie Banning was held Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Al Stentz on Wildwood avenue. The members of the class are Mrs. Al Stentz, Mrs. Stella Phillips, Mrs. Wallace Bowker, Mrs. C. S. Kitch, Mrs. Ernest Crane, Mrs. Charles Whitney, Mrs. J. D. Banning and Mrs. Walter Jones.

A call for knitted articles used by men engaged in mine-laying, submarine diving and other work has been issued by the comfort committee of the navy league. Women who knit can make sleeveless jackets, mufflers and wristlets. Mrs. Kate P. Beamer, 2432 Webster street, has the directions for the articles approved by the navy department and will be glad to furnish them. She has also volunteered her services as a teacher.

Friars Will Give Benefit.

The vaudeville performance given last Thursday evening by the Friars and their young women friends will be repeated on Monday evening, April 23, at the Palace theater for the benefit of the Red Cross society.

COUNCIL TO ORGANIZE
AT THE NEXT MEETING

Temporary Officers Will Be Retained Until Next Monday.

"Fort Wayne Council for Patriotic Service," is the name which was chosen by those in attendance at a meeting at the Commercial club Monday afternoon for an organization here. The council will consist of one representative from every organization in the city professing allegiance to the country and the object is to unite the forces of the city for patriotic service, such as the conservation of foodstuffs, clothing and other necessities, and the raising of crops on all available areas.

Temporary officers have been chosen and these will continue in office until the next meeting to be held next Monday afternoon at the Commercial club at which time a permanent organization will be made. They are W. H. Scheiman, president, and Charles R. Lane, secretary.

Many organizations were represented at the meeting Monday and all those not heard from will receive invitations to send an elected representative to the next session. Any that are overlooked have been asked to come forward of their own accord for it has been stated that the object is to make the organization "as wide as Fort Wayne."

The idea of forming this organization was derived from the talk given by H. H. Merrick, of Chicago, before the members of the Quest club and their guests at the banquet given at the Anthony last Friday night. It is expected that many other cities will follow the lead. Fort Wayne is the third city in the country to have such a patriotic council.

REVEALED SEALED BIDS.

Sealed bids were being filed Monday for the $125,000 worth of city coliseum bonds yet to be disposed of. The bids will be opened Monday evening or Tuesday morning. It is expected that the bonds will sell at a good premium. Thirty thousand dollars of the city coliseum fund was raised by popular sale of the bonds in $100 and $500 lots.

Members of Wayne circle, No. 43, Ladies of V. A. R., will meet on Tuesday evening with Mrs. Holmes, 626 Organ avenue. Important business will be transacted.

POLICE STACK ARMS
OF GERMAN SOCIETIES

Franco-Prussian War Patriots Turn Over Fifty Old Muskets.

Fifty muskets of ancient design were turned over to the police Monday morning by the German societies of Landwehr verein and Waffengenosson, made up of veterans of the Franco-Prussian war. Members of these organizations have nearly all been naturalized and would come under the classification of "alien enemies," strictly speaking, but their leaders wish to show that they are heartily in accord with the United States government.

More than 100 rifles and muskets, three score of revolvers, several swords and bayonets and one blunderbuss have been delivered to police headquarters since the order was received here Saturday night that weapons held by all aliens must be brought to police headquarters. The battle pieces are being stored in the detectives' room on the second floor of the station.

Chief Lenz has not yet started to make investigation to learn if there are more of the classified "alien enemies" who have not brought in their weapons. He will probably do so, Tuesday, he says.

Several German flags were turned in to police headquarters Monday afternoon by German societies of the city. These organizations will ask the return of the banners after the war, but at present there is no sign but "Old Glory," their officers say.

Police have no power to excuse any citizen from delivering their belongings of war. The order from T. W. Gregory, attorney general, follows:

"Under the proclamation of the president, dated April 6, 1917, it is unlawful for any alien enemies to have in their possession the following articles:

"Any firearms, weapon, or implement of war, or component part thereof; ammunition, Maxim or other silencer, bomb or explosive, or material used in manufacture of explosives; any air craft or wire craft or apparatus, or any form of signaling device, or any form of cipher code, or any paper, document, or book written or printed in cipher or in which there may be invisible writing.

"Your co-operation in enforcing this proclamation is earnestly desired; and you are requested, if possible, to post notices or otherwise notify all alien enemies within your locality to bring to police headquarters and surrender any and all articles which it is unlawful to have in their possession. A detailed receipt should be given for all articles so surrendered, and at the close of the war such articles should be returned.

"Any such enemy who fails to surrender such articles within twenty-four hours after public notice given by you, will be subject to summary arrest if such articles shall be found in his possession; and the articles will be seized and forfeited to the use of the United States.

days making repairs in his cottage there. Sunday evening, accompanied by B. Weigman, also of this city, he had gone to the grocery store for some supplies. As they neared the shore on their return the row boat upset.

Weigman after several unsuccessful attempts to rescue Mr. Ambler reached the shore in safety and spread the word. Searchers set about immediately to recover the body.

Ambler was forty years of age and was employed as a fireman on the Nickel Plate railroad. Surviving he leaves the widow, one daughter, Louise, aged eight year, the mother, Mrs. Frank Fava, one sister, Mrs. W. J. Tucker, and a brother, Earl Ambler, all of Fort Wayne.

Body Recovered.

The body was recovered by searchers at 9:15 o'clock Monday morning after two hours of searching. It was found near by where he was seen the last time to come up.

The remains will be brought to this city, arriving at 9:15 o'clock Monday evening, and will be taken to the Klehn & Melching parlors.

JOHN D. WILL ATTEND
BROTHER'S FUNERAL

Frank Rockefeller Dies in His Apartments at Cleveland, Ohio.

New York, April 16.—John D. Rockefeller planned to leave New York today for Cleveland to attend the funeral of his brother, Frank Rockefeller, who died there yesterday morning after a quarrel the two had some years ago. William Rockefeller will accompany his brother to Cleveland and it was stated. The funeral is to be held there tomorrow.

A blood clot on the brain as a result of a stroke he sustained following an intestinal operation a month ago was the cause of Rockefeller's death. He was seventy-two years old. For several years he was associated with his brothers, John D. and William A. Rockefeller, in the oil business, but later became a stockman following a quarrel with John D., with whom he had not been on speaking terms for a number of years.

Frank Rockefeller had frequently visited in Fort Wayne and was well known by several Fort Wayne residents. He often came here during the time that Frank DeHaas Robison and M. Stanley owned the traction company, now the Fort Wayne & Northern Indiana Traction company.

WILSON APPEAL
HAS PRAISE IN GREAT BRITAIN

London, April 16.—President Wilson's appeal to the American people is given great prominence in the evening newspapers which print the proclamation textually.

"It goes straight to the heart of the great war problem," says the Westminster Gazette, "and will be read with great appreciation by the allied nations."

"No message addressed by their governments to any of the countries at war," adds the newspaper, "has better combined an appeal to the part with shrewd, practical counsel and shown a keener eye to the fundamentals of the situation."

ANOTHER NEWSPAPER MAN.

Carl Schroeder, 3202 Webster street, court reporter on the Daily News, became the father of a seven-pound son Monday.

APRIL TERM OF COURT
OPENS WITH BIG TRIAL

Damage Suit of $20,000 Brought Here from Whitley County.

A twenty thousand dollar damage suit was the curtain raiser for the April or summer term of circuit court Monday morning. The case which marked the opening of the new term was brought by Meyer Levin against the Grippitt company of South Whitley, and is being tried before a jury.

The case was brought here on a change of venue from the Whitley circuit court. The plaintiff is seeking damages as the result of injuries sustained while in the employ of the defendants in an accident which he alleges was due to the carelessness and negligence of the defendants.

In his complaint the plaintiff states that he fell a distance of twelve feet when a scaffold gave way. He alleges that he fell on his face and that some heavy timber fell on him resulting in permanent injuries.

Monday afternoon the case was suddenly brought to a close when a settlement was reached outside of court.

OWNERSHIP OF BUGGY.

Frank Keller was "beat up" by the hands of "Red" Carter so the former says in his affidavit. As a result "Red" is now housed in the county jail awaiting his trial. Sheriff Gille arrested him Sunday evening.

TRACTORS TO PLOW
SUBURBAN TRACTS

Gas Company Gives Fourteen Acres for Trucking Use.

Tractor engines will be the "uncheckable tanks" in Fort Wayne's food drive this summer. The machines are to be donated by the International Harvester company, which corporation will also furnish men for operating the tractor in plowing and cultivating suburban tracts.

Motor power will be used on all Fort Wayne food drive tracts in larger area than three acres. The engines will be ready for starting their work next week. The motor company asks only that the city furnish the fuel for the machines. Mayor Hoesy, who, with Robert Kelly, was instrumental in bringing about the donation by the Harvester company, believes that he can induce an oil company to furnish the fuel, for the advertising it would afford.

L. E. Mulholland, president of the Northern Indiana Gas and Electric company, offered to the city in behalf of that corporation a fourteen acre plot in the southwest part of the city. Mayor Hoesy promptly replied that the offer would be accepted. The tract is known as the Thompson plat and lays at the intersection of the Wabash railroad and St. Mary's river. It is adjoining by Thompson avenue and Richmond avenue.

Mayor Hoesy states that he has been promised the use of a large strip of land controlled by the Woodlawn Builders' association. He expects to have work started on all ground obtainable as soon as possible.

It is the mayor's plan at present to have a committee appointed for overseeing the ground breaking and cultivation of city tracts. Care of the garden plots may be turned over to societies of the city later on or may be turned over to the city. The latter case the products would be sold at the market, Hoesy says.

To Send Invitations.

Mayor Hoesy will send official invitations to all towns where mass meetings are to be held in relation to the food drive celebration. The envoys sent out from Fort Wayne will proclaim the heartiness with which this city bids all neighbors to attend the great patriotic day festivities.

Contagion Record.

REV. HOSTETTER MAKES
APPEAL FOR SACRIFICE

Rev. Hostetter Says This is No Time for Traitors and Criticisms.

"Deeply we deplore the war. Our hearts are filled with anguish at the very thought of this sad necessity. But America is now in the conflict and that can mean but one thing for me. It means that I am in and must nerve myself to make any sacrifice that my country may require of me. To mind this is the attitude that must be taken by every true citizen of this republic. Let there be no divisions among us, no traitors, criticisms nor selfish reservations. Let us stand by the flag and support our country in the great conflict she is waging for the freedom of the masses and the rights of humanity. We hereby pledge to America every vestige of strength and the very last drop of blood that God has given us."

The above is a part of the stirring message delivered Sunday evening by the Rev. H. B. Hostetter in a patriotic service at the Third Presbyterian church. The church was beautifully decorated in the national colors.

Rev. Hostetter declared that in many instances the only safe defense is a vigorous fight to the finish. "Righteousness is more precious than peace," he said. "I verily believe that a war that is waged for justice, for defense of great vital principles, for true freedom and the rights of humanity will be owned and used by the God of Battles in carrying out his great purpose."

Mrs. C. Beckstein, of East Creighton avenue, gave a dinner party at 6 o'clock on Sunday evening in celebration of her birthday anniversary. Mrs. Harry Ross assisted her mother during the time. Covers were laid for twelve.

BRYAN READY FOR THE CALL

Commoner Sees President and Pledges Help in War Measures.

WILL PREACH IN FOOD CAMPAIGN

Declares Use of Grain to Make Booze Should Be Prohibited.

Washington, April 16.—President Wilson received Wm. J. Bryan at the white house this morning. They conferred in the president's room before he went to his office.

Mr. Bryan reiterated to the president his offer recently made by telegraph to be of all possible service to the government during the war. After leaving the president, Mr. Bryan dictated a statement declaring his intention to support the government in any war plans upon which it might decide.

He declined, however, to discuss specifically. In his future speeches about the country pending a claim from the government for his services, Mr. Bryan said he would lay special stress on the food situation. He is gathering data along that line for use in his addresses.

Mr. Bryan said he endorsed any plan to prohibit the use of grain for making liquor during the war. "I am in hearty sympathy," he said, "with the effort to conserve the food supply by not allowing the bread to be shortened in order to lengthen the supply of alcohol. It is not wise to starve the people in order to make them drunk."

Before calling on the president, Mr. Bryan conferred with Secretaries Houston and Baker, he also planned to see Secretary Daniels and Postmaster General Hieson. Mr. Bryan left here shortly after seeing the president for Lehigh, Pa., where he speaks tonight.

He plans to go west via Lincoln, soon. Regarding his offer to become a private in the army, Mr. Bryan said he made it because he believed that in that capacity he could be with the largest body of citizens.

FORT WAYNE PLAYERS GET FIRST WORKOUT

Light Practice Starts Training of Central League Outfit.

First practice of the Fort Wayne Central league club was held this morning at League park. Manager Vandagriff was out of the city and the players who had reported up to that time went out to the lot and indulged in some very light work, which was followed up again in the afternoon.

There will be very little real work until the latter part of the week, when the players will get ready for the game with Mart Cleary's Lincoln Life club. Vandy expected to get in late this afternoon and to take charge of the work tomorrow.

Most of the squad is on hand now and headquarters have been established at the Rich hotel. They are all anxious for the real work to start and predict a big season for the club of youngsters unless the war does what it is threatening to do to all professional sports.

MISS BROWNE MENACE TO TENNIS CHAMPION

Title Holder Must Look to Her Honors This Year.

Reports from the coast indicate that Miss Molla Bjursted must look to her honors as national tennis champion this year.

In recent matches Miss Bjursted was defeated by both Mrs. May Sutton Bundy and Miss Mary Browne.

Although it was admitted that Miss Bjursted was handicapped by playing on asphalt courts and by a high wind, and was not up to her usual game, still coast experts remarked that the attack of both Mrs. Bundy and Miss Browne would have caused the Norwegian wonder trouble under any circumstances.

Miss Browne's game particularly, it is declared, is far superior to any of her former efforts. She drives the ball harder and her backhand strokes are superb. She is also much faster on the courts than formerly and her impetuous style completely upset Miss Bjursted's play.

Strange how these ball players age. Before war was declared none of them were over 20. Now most of them are around 45.

Begin To Purify Your Winter-Blood

Grandmother's Old-Fashioned Sulphur and Molasses Diet It. But Not So Well As This Sulphur Tablet—Sugar Coated.

Through the winter the blood accumulates poisons because you do not perspire enough, because you do not live in the open air, and because you eat more meat, mush and other rich foods. Every spring we feel sluggish, constipated, liver and kidney ill, beset us, colds and chronic coughs, pimples, boils, thick, sluggish blood. Sulphur Tablets (not sulphur tablets) are composed of extracts of roots and herbs, combined with sulphur and cream of tartar—and no better physic, blood-tonic and blood-cleanser has ever been developed. Every spring thousands who already know their value take them to purify the system of Winter Poisons. Now is the time to begin, so you won't be attacked by serious ailments when Spring and Summer come. Sold by all druggists 50c per sealed tube with full directions.

OLD FOLKS NEED "CASCARETS" FOR LIVER, BOWELS

Salts, calomel, pills act on bowels like pepper acts in nostrils.

Enjoy life! Don't stay bilious, sick, headachy and constipated.

Get a 10-cent box now. Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles.

So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty. Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lash can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets, and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep—advertisements.

FLAG MIDWAY AT ELECTRIC WORKS

Eight Banners Floating Within a Radius of About 200 Feet.

The driveway which enters the yards at the General Electric works, just back of the office building and leads to the east and south, terminates in a court formed by a number of one-story buildings used as storage houses for certain kinds of material. In the circle are nine little buildings, and last week a neat pole, surmounted by an eagle and bearing an American flag, was mounted over each, forming a most patriotic scene and giving to the place the name of "Flag Midway." The departments represented in this patriotic group and the men who have charge of them are: The plumbing shed, John Lewis; carpenter shed, William Martin; casting shed, Samuel Stocks; welding shed, Earl Gehrhart; rock drill shed, Joseph Sanders; oil house, Fred Dickey; thermalstatic metal, Walter Anthony; and oil separating, A. Strube.

THE ROUND HOUSE FLAG.

Dedication Saturday Attended by Hundreds of People.

Hundreds of people, chiefly the residents of that part of the city, assembled on the hilltop west of the Pennsylvania round house, Saturday afternoon to witness the dedication of the handsome flag staff and flag which was accomplished under the auspices of the employees at the round house. The exercises were similar to those of the dedication of the shop employees' flag at Holman and Barr street at noon Saturday, which was mentioned in detail by The Sentinel. Battery B, with two pieces of artillery in charge of Capt. J. C. Scheffer, was on hand to fire three shots as a salute to the magnificent banner when it was opened to the breeze and Capt. Ray McAdams had charge of Company E, which "presented arms" when the bugle sounded "to the colors." Master Mechanic E. E. Griest made a few remarks, praising the men for their loyalty not only to their country but to the Pennsylvania company, their employer. Hon. Harry Higginson, the chief speaker, eloquently expressed the sentiments of the crowd in his patriotic address, as indicated by the frequent applause.

GAVE BROTHERHOOD A FLAG.

Wolf & Dessauer Present American Banner to B. R. T.

A greatly appreciated patriotic feature of the banquet of Fort Wayne Lodge No. 136, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, Sunday evening was the presentation of a handsome American flag to the lodge by Wolf & Dessauer, the presentation speech in behalf of the generous contributors being made by Peter Collins, one of the oldest, in point of service of the members of the local brotherhood. Holding the banner aloft, he paid tribute to the country and sentiments it represented and offered a vote of thanks to the donors, which was given by those who arose to their feet and burst into cheers. The lodge also accepted the invitation of Dr. A. G. Emrick to participate in the ceremonies in celebration of Lexington day and the new flag will be carried in the procession. To arrange for the event a committee consisting of F. E. Todd, chairman; Peter Collins, H. B. Grafmiller, J. B. Latourette, R. A. Knoff, George Clark and P. J. Sullivan was appointed at the meeting Sunday afternoon. The lodge held its regular meeting in Unity hall, Sunday afternoon, following the business session with a 6 o'clock chop suey dinner and a social and it was at the latter that the flag presentation was made.

Encouraging news concerning D. B. Hobson comes from his bedside in the hospital at Bellevue. It is now believed that neither the injured leg or arm will have to be amputated and that both will be saved and restored to normal condition. Mr. Hobson, it will be remembered, was run over by the trucks of a car which was being pushed by a Nickel Plate switch engine in the Bellevue yards Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock and one arm and one leg were crushed so badly that at first it was feared amputation of the arm at least would be necessary. Mr. Hobson resides in Fort Wayne, having rooms with Conductor N. S. Patton at 1324 West Main street. He is a member of Fort Wayne Lodge No. 136, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and is well known in railway circles in the city. He left here Friday as a brakeman in Conductor Charles Compton's crew and had just arrived in Bellevue when the accident happened.

DUEL CLUB BANQUET.

Over 200 Members and Guests Enjoy a Feast.

Earl Stickley acted as toastmaster and General Manager C. M. Meyers, Hon. H. M. Higginson, George Jacobs and A. M. Groves were the speakers at the annual banquet of the Duo club at the Elks' Temple, Saturday night. The speeches were all of a patriotic character and were well received and applauded by the 200 or more members and guests. The club quartet, composed of Louis Loechner, L. Mulligan, James Groves and Roy Marsh, and an orchestra composed of William Fry, O. W. Volland and D. Rowley furnished the music for the occasion, with the assistance of Jerome Kohrman and Miss Mulligan playing a piano duet. Mr. Kohrman, who is chairman of the entertainment committee, was given a vote of thanks for the excellent manner in which he performed his duties.

DEDICATION AT EAST YARDS.

The item in the city papers Saturday concerning a flag demonstration at the east yards Tuesday afternoon was erroneous inasmuch as it stated that the men back of the patriotic demonstration were the employees of the Pennsylvania shops. The flag to be dedicated at 4:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon was purchased by the yard office force and the yardmen under General Yardmaster Henry Bley, and the dedication will be of the patriotic character which was the result of the dedication of the flags at the shops and the roundhouse last Saturday afternoon. The dedication of the pole and flag provided by the east car shop employees has been delayed by the non-arrival of the flag, ordered several days ago. The men have word that the flag will arrive this week and if it does the dedication will take place next Saturday.

RAISED FLAG ON SUNDAY.

Because of the very busy condition of the blacksmiths at the Bass works, the dedication of the flag at the shops and the roundhouse was postponed until Sunday. The flag was raised at 10 o'clock Sunday morning and the employees of the shops and the roundhouse were present and Assistant General Foreman Jacob Hausbach was master of ceremonies. The flag is a handsome one, being 16x20 feet in dimensions and was purchased by the employees of the blacksmith shop. Five or six other poles erected in the past two weeks at the Bass shops are still without flags. The banners have been ordered, but so far have not been received. When they arrive they will be hoisted over the machine shop, the yard and the foundry not yet supplied.

WILL DEDICATE THURSDAY.

The eighty-foot steel pole, which is one of the most handsome in the city and which was erected on ground just west of Fairfield avenue and south of the Wabash master mechanic building last week, will receive its flag and be dedicated with appropriate ceremonies at the noon hour Thursday. This pole and flag were purchased by contributions of the men in the offices and shops. They also purchased and erected over the machine shop several weeks ago a handsome flag.

LOOKING INTO TRACK NEEDS.

Division Engineer Guy Scott, Master Carpenter C. D. Zook and Bridge Supervisor C. R. Ladd, with three or four of the maintenance of way carpenters as motive power, are making a trip on a hand car over the Western division of the Pennsylvania this week. They started from Gary on a hand car this morning and are coming east, inspecting bridges, culverts and other parts of the road, enroute, to determine what improvements are necessary.

HAD ANKLE BROKEN.

G. M. Stripp is at the Lutheran hospital with a broken ankle, the result of an accident this morning. Mr. Stripp, who is employed in the Pennsylvania warehouse, was assisting in handling some metal, when one of the pieces slipped off the wagon and struck his ankle with the result mentioned. He is one of the faithful and reliable employees at the warehouse, having been employed there ten years.

CHANGES AT THE LIGHTS.

B. F. Herber, who came from the farm, and W. F. Helm took employment of the department of the store house at the General Electric works over which Herber had been in charge. P. McMaken, who worked in that department four or five years, resigned this morning. He purchased a farm three or four miles north of the city and is now preparing to move his family on it.

G. A. LEEPER RESIGNS.

Gerald A. Leeper, who has served three or four years as a clerk in the Pennsylvania shops, the past two years in the pipe and copper shop, has accepted employment with the Southern Pacific and will leave the shops this latter part of the week for El Paso, Texas, which will be his headquarters for awhile at least. His successor at the shop has not been named.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETS.

The executive committee of the Northeastern Indiana Volunteer Firemen's association, of which Fred G. Duryee and G. F. Rogge, of the General Electric works, are members, held a meeting in Fort Wayne yesterday to discuss and make arrangements for the annual tournament, which will take place at Garrett, Thursday, June 23.

Y. M. C. A. MANAGEMENT.

WHEAT, CORN AND HAY FIGURE IN ADVANCES

Farmer Contracts to Sell Load of Corn at $1.60 Per Bushel.

In the market advance of Monday hay, corn and wheat figured with honors just about even. Hay, which has not been higher than $13 this year, jumped to $15.50 over Sunday. The high price in corn, which has been $1.48, jumped to $1.50 per bushel, and one farmer who sold a load at the latter figure today, contracted to bring another in tomorrow, which is to be purchased by the second party of the contract for $1.60 a bushel.

Wheat did the customary thing and advanced 6c, dragging flour with it to the extent of 20c. This makes the grain $1.38, and seems to predict that bread may be forced out of common usage. Receipts were naturally light all around at the beginning of the week and only six loads were weighed at the city scales. Three of these were hay and the other three corn. No oats appeared.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.
Chicago, April 16.—Scarcity of offerings and the eagerness with which they were snapped up hoisted wheat prices today far above previous records. New crop features at first showed a downward tendency on account of better weather conditions but later rallied owing to strength of cash wheat and of the May option. Opening prices which ranged from 2 1/2c decline to 1 1/2c advance, with May at $2.25 1/2 to $2.26, and July at $1.90 to $1.91 1/2, were followed by decided upturns all around.

Corn as well as wheat jumped to new top figures. After opening unchanged to 1 1/2c higher, the market reacted a little but then scored a general advance well above Saturday's finish. Oats hardened with other cereals. Weakness in the hog market had a depressing effect on provisions.

Toledo Closing Prices.
Toledo, O., April 16.—Wheat: Cash, $2.59 1/2; May, $2.59 1/2; July, $2.05 1/2; September, $1.81.
Corn—Cash, $1.49 1/2 to $1.50; May, $1.49; July, $1.43.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, April 16.—Gains and losses for the most part fractional, were quite evenly distributed during today's early dealings, trading being light in volume and of a cautious character. Equipments and munitions were variable, with the several groups of war issues. Ralls developed further irregularly, especially coalers, leading losing half a point, with two points for Norfolk and Western. There was offset to a degree by the strength of Baltimore and Ohio and Louisville and Nashville. Gas shares were again among the weak features, People's Gas losing three points, United States Steel reacted from its firm opening, with some tendencies in the prominent industrials. Operations broadened later and pressure became more active. Soft spots were found by professional traders and additional liquidation seemed to result from the president's proclamation, emphasizing the need of economy and small profits. U. S. Steel fell 1 1/2, with 2 1/2 for Bethlehem Steel, new stock, and one to three for most industrials and war issues. Marines weakened on reports that Great Britain had extended its control over ships of

Not a Bite of Breakfast Until You Drink Water

Says a glass of hot water and phosphate prevents illness and keeps us fit.

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of combustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken day after day leaves in the alimentary canal a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not completely eliminated from the system each day, becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels. From this mass of left-over waste, toxins and ptomaine poisons are formed and sucked into the blood.

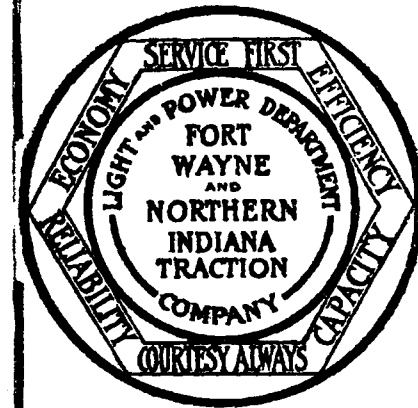

Men and women who can't get feeling right must begin to take inside baths. Before eating breakfast each morning drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of lime phosphate in it to wash out of the thirty feet of bowels the previous day's accumulation of poisons and toxins and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh.

Those who are subject to sick headache, colds, biliousness, constipation, others who wake up with bad taste, foul breath, backache, rheumatic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy stomach after meals, are urged to get a quarter pound of lime phosphate from the drug store, and begin practicing internal sanitation. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject.

Remember inside bathing is more important than outside bathing, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing poor health, while the bowel pores do. Just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.—Advertisement.

"EDITORIAL" MAGAZINE SUSPENDS PUBLICATION

High Cost of Material Given as Cause by the Editor,
John B. Stoll.

[Special to The Sentinel.]
Columbia City, Ind., April 16.—The "Editorial," published weekly at South Whitley, and edited by John B. Stoll, of South Bend, has suspended, after two years of wide circulation. High cost of printing materials forced the cessation of the magazine, which contained some of the best thought on national and current events, taken from editorials in the leading papers, journals, magazines and political and economic periodicals.

Short Notes.
In a runaway track meet Saturday afternoon on the Columbia City high school campus, the defeated Laketon high school 78½ to 15½ Laketon getting only one first—in the 440-yard dash. Pence, for Columbia City, was the big point getter, capturing standing broad jumps and high jump. Logan won the 100-yard dash, going the distance in 11.5 seconds, while McNabb won the 220 heat in 26 seconds. The county track meet occurs in this city Saturday afternoon, May 5.

Otto Miller, aged 16, and son of William D. Miller, general store manager of Elma, and Ronald, 19, son of Dr. J. W. C. Scott, of Elma, ran away from home Friday night, were motored to this city by a brother of the Scotts and went to Fort Wayne, where they enlisted in the navy. They had been contemplating joining the navy for several weeks, but their parents held forth strong objections.

A mail pouch destined for this city March 21 was found in the river below the Pennsylvania railroad bridge Friday by Frank Lickie. It was thrown from westbound train No. 23, and its contents were pretty well soaked. The mail catcher and mail receiver for mail from westbound trains stands too close to the river, and often a second's difference in time means that the pouches fall into the river.

Eulalie Hoard, daughter of Charles Hoard, has been brought home from Fort Wayne, where she took treatment in a hospital, while recovering from pneumonia. Her uncle, Kelts Hoard, member of the county council, is now seriously ill, threatened with the same disease.

Six local high students will take the fourteen days' special military training course in Culver military academy, beginning April 30. They are Robert Meiser, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Meiser; Carl Morsches, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Morsches; Dewitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McLauren; Tommy, son of Jacob Portman; Wayne, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Spaulding, and Wilson Alsop, brother of Mrs. J. B. Holloway.

Mrs. Charles F. Schinbeckle has been notified of the death of her uncle, William Embury, who visited here only last fall, returning to his farm home near Lamar, Kan., in November. Mr. Embury was a former resident of Union township, leaving for the west thirty years ago. He was 72 years of age, and is survived by his wife, a daughter, Mrs. Effie Sharp, and two brothers, Jacob Douglas, of Coesse, owns a half ton of German potash that he purchased for $42.50 a ton. It is done up in bags of fifty pounds capacity, with the plain print, showing that it came from Germany. Mr. Douglas has been offered $350 for his half ton, but will keep it a while longer.

Frank Schultz, superintendent of the city power plant, has purchased the residence property of Will Markwalder on East Market street, and will occupy it. Mr. Markwalder has reserved the west half of the lot and will erect a fine bungalow for his own occupancy.

DRINK WATER TO AVOID SICKNESS SAYS AUTHORITY

Glass of hot water before breakfast daily keeps the doctor away.

Sanitary science has of late made rapid strides with results that are of untold blessing to humanity. The latest application of its untiring research is the recommendation that it is as necessary to attend to internal sanitation of the drainage system of the human body as it is to the drains of the house.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the situation of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans all the acid fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the phosphate hot water is quickly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatic stiffness; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced enthusiast on the subject of internal sanitation.—Advertisement.

REV. BOSCH TELLS WHY HE'S REFORMED MEMBER

Says His Church Does Not Foster Spirit of Fanaticism and Intolerance.

Rev. John R. Bosch, pastor of St. John's Reformed church, gave several reasons in an address Sunday evening at the First Presbyterian church why he is a member of the Reformed church.

He pointed out that "reformed" means reshaped, made over, made better, freed from evils and abuses. The Reformed church is one of the very first fruits of the Reformation, he said. Zwingli and Luther were the first two great men who, as mighty instruments in God's hands, started the great Reformation movement.

Rev. Bosch declared he is a member of the Reformed church because it upholds the whole Bible as the true Word of God and as the only infallible, supreme and final authority in all matters pertaining to the Christian faith and life to the organization, power and administration of the visible church; because it has exalted Christ as the true, eternal and natural Son of God; because it emphasizes "that although we are righteous before God only by true faith in Christ, that saving faith, without good works, not works of merit but of thankfulness, is impossible and dead;" because it points to the sacrifice and death of Christ on the cross as the most important and supreme act in the great work of salvation of man, accomplished by Him; because it teaches the two sacraments, Holy Baptism and the Holy Supper; because it does not oppose religious investigation and progress, and because it does not foster the spirit of fanaticism and intolerance.

AUBURN NEWS.

Auburn, Indiana, April 14.—Nine members have been added to Company K in the past few days, but still they are sixty members shy of the standard required.

The commencement exercises of the Auburn high school will be held on Thursday evening, May 24. The class has secured the services of Professor Smith, president of the Ada, Ohio, college, to deliver the commencement address. There are twenty-eight in the class.

Mrs. H. L. Lawrence and son have returned from a week's visit with friends in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Miley, of Detroit, were week-end guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hickey, of Phillips street.

The old High-Y club held another interesting meeting at the Y. M. C. A. building Sunday afternoon and listened to a very instructive address by C. A. L. Kuhlman, his subject being "War." Nearly all the members were present.

Many Auburn people will go to Fort Wayne Thursday in response to an invitation from the mayor of that city to attend a big patriotic meeting to be held there on that date.

Miss George Goebelin, of Fort Wayne, was a week-end guest of Mrs. Harry Myers.

The Kerst Evangelistic party are still holding their meetings in the Huselman building on South Main street and quite a number have been converted. They expect to continue throughout this week at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Altenberg, of this city, have received a letter from their son, Harry, who is a student at the Northwestern university, stating that he has joined the ambulance corps in the national guard company which was recently organized there.

The patriotic meeting held at the Methodist church Sunday was attended by many people and the services were indeed beautiful. The house of worship was artistically decorated with the "Stars and Stripes" and the music was all patriotic.

LINCOLN LIFE TAKES OVER PIONEER CO.

Fort Wayne Insurance Company is Now a $52,000,000 Concern.

All details connected with the consolidation of the Lincoln Life Insurance company and the Pioneer Life Insurance company, of North Dakota, have been completed, by which the local concern is now a $52,180,227 institution.

From its infancy the Lincoln Life has been one of the most rapidly growing insurance companies in the country. Today it ranks with the best, with a future that is not surpassed by any other company of its kind in the world. While this growth has been rapid, it has at the same time been the result of careful business methods, insuring confidence and the good will of those with whom it does business.

So far as Indiana is concerned, the Lincoln Life has for several years led all other companies in the state. Last year seventy-five companies wrote life insurance in Indiana, but notwithstanding the Lincoln Life led all of them in the amount of new business and in the net gain of insurance in force.

As a result of the consolidation of the two companies the Lincoln Life will gain in assets almost $1,000,000, over $100,000 of which is added surplus to policy holders. The assets are now $4,123,941, and the surplus protection over all liabilities to policy holders is $5,10,357. The insurance in force is $52,180,227. The income of the Lincoln Life will be more than $2,250,000 this year.

There will be no changes in the local officers. T. D. Hughes, former vice president and manager of agencies of the Pioneer Life, has been elected fourth vice president and manager of northwestern agencies and W. W. Scott, formerly treasurer of the Pioneer Life, has been elected an assistant secretary. These gentlemen will remain in Fargo, North Dakota, where the Lincoln Life owns its own building.

This office will be known as the Pioneer branch of the Lincoln Life. Five million dollars worth of new business has been written for the first quarter of the year, representing a 70 per cent increase over the same period in 1916. With the Pioneer company more than $20,000,000 worth of new business will be written this year and the assets of the company will pass the $5,000,000 mark.

The bi-annual examination required by the insurance laws of the state is now being made. Through a request of the officers of the company the Indiana insurance department invited the stars of North Dakota and Ohio to join in the examination which will be conducted by six men. Thirty days will be required to complete the examination.

FRENCH OFFENSIVE CHEERS THE BRITISH

GERMANS OFFER GREAT DEFENSE IN LENS SECTOR

Von Hindenburg Brings Up Reserves
and the Destruction of City
Is Going Forward.

BERLIN DISCOUNTS BRITISH REPORTS

London, April 16.—(6:52 p. m.)—"News of the opening of the great French offensive has spread like wild-fire through the British forces," telegraphs Reuter's correspondent at British headquarters in France today.

The Germans, it is apparent, have sent in their reserves and are making a desperate defense to enable their engineers to complete the destruction of the mines and factories of Lens, which might have been useful to the allies.

Despite the fact that all along the line between Lens and St. Quentin the German resistance has stiffened, Gen. Haig reports today the capture of Villers, which straightens his line northwest of St. Quentin, and announces further progress to the northwest of Lens. Counterattacks which the Germans have launched at Monchy and Lagnicourt suggests that the British are approaching dangerously near the new German line which, according to unofficial accounts, the Germans had not time to complete before the British offensive was launched.

BRITISH OFFICIAL REPORT.

London, April 16.—The British last night captured the village of Villers, southeast of Hargicourt, according to an official statement issued by the war office. They also made progress northwest of Lens.

Large captures of guns and war material were made by the British at Lievin and on the Souchez river, in the Lens region, the statement announces. The cannon taken include a six-inch naval gun of long range. Truck loads of new tools, many thousands of rounds of ammunition and quantities of bombs, grenades and engineering equipment also were captured.

The statement reads: "We captured last night the village of Villers, southeast of Hargicourt and northwest of Lens."

"Full particulars of the booty we took at Lievin and the Souchez river are unavailable, but the fact is established that our captures were exceedingly large, including a long range six-inch naval gun, many thousands of rounds of ammunition of all calibers up to eight inch, a number of trench mortars and great quantities of bombs and grenades of all kinds. In addition truck loads of new tools, many thousands of rounds of ammunition and quantities of bombs, grenades and engineering equipment also were captured."

"The attack at Monchy-le-Preux, on the 14th, was pressed by the enemy with great determination. The third Bavarian division, which was brought down to resist our offensive during the battle of Loos in 1916, and later took part in the fighting near Highwood during the Somme battle in 1916, was hurled down to reinforce the divisions already in line. It was ordered to retake Monchy-le-Preux at all costs. Its losses in this fruitless attack were exceptionally heavy, as has been the case with all the Bavarian troops throughout the whole recent operations."

Of the prisoners taken by us since the ninth, more than one-third are Bavarians."

BRITISH VERSION DISPUTED.

Amsterdam, April 16.—It is asserted in a dispatch received here from Berlin that various villages in the Arras region, which the British official statement of April 14 reports as captured, were villages and pieces of ground which the Germans had not entirely evacuated several days previously.

"The English press," says the dispatch, "is circulating reports regarding the piercing of the Hindenburg line. The English attempt to break through was directed, however, against old positions held since 1915 and despite local successes it has completely and finally failed."

"It is not clear what the English

LATIN AMERICA GETS TOGETHER

Republics of Southern Continent Lining Up With United States.

ALL BUT THREE SHOW SYMPATHY

These Are Expected Within the Week to Act With Their Sisters.

Washington, April 16.—Prompt endorsements from South American countries of the action of the United States taking up Germany's challenge to war are the source of great gratification to officials of the administration. There remained today but three countries—Ecuador, Venezuela and Colombia—which had not defined their positions and it was believed that before the end of the week they too, would respond.

With the exception of Costa Rica, none of the Central American group had declared its attitude, but no concern over where their sympathy will be placed has been felt at the state department.

So far Cuba is the only unaligned Latin American. But the positions assumed by Panama and Costa Rica place them practically in the list of war nations and almost no doubt remains that Brazil would be at war within a few days.

The only governments that have not been frank in their endorsement of the step taken by the United States are Chile and Peru, the former coming itself to a formal declaration of neutrality and the latter to "deploring" the fact that the United States had been unable to adjust her difficulties with Germany without recourse to war.

How Latin-America is Aligned.

Following is the way the other Latin-American nations whose positions are defined were lined up today:

Cuba.—Declared war against Germany.

ALL WIRELESS STATIONS MUST BE DISMANTLED

Washington, April 16.—All wireless telegraph stations not operated by the government were ordered dismantled during the war today by direction of the secretary of the navy. Failure of owners to comply will result in confiscation of equipment.

The action was taken under the executive order recently issued by President Wilson directing the navy department to take over all radio stations. The department's statement says: "All licenses for radio stations on shore are suspended for the duration of the war. The secretary of the navy has directed that during the war all radio sending and receiving stations, other than those operated by the United States government be closed. A station is considered closed only when its antenna is lowered, coiled and sealed; ground connection broken and the apparatus dismantled and packed away. It is incumbent upon the owners themselves to close their stations. Failure to close stations will result in its apparatus being confiscated by the government. The owners of a station operating in defiance of this order will be under suspicion of an enemy alien. It is requested that full publicity be given this notice, in order that all persons may be acquainted with these requirements."

Rio Janeiro, Brazil, April 16.—The seizure of German ships has been completed without incident.

Press dispatches from Santos report the arrest of three German spies near the fort at Itapu.

More than 50,000 persons attended a demonstration under the auspices of the league of the allies. The flags of the entente nations were cheered, as were the diplomatic representative of these countries who attended the celebration. The crowd was stirred to a high pitch of enthusiasm by a speech delivered by Ruy Barbosa, Brazilian ambassador to Argentina, who has a larger following among the Brazilian people than almost any other man in public life. The ambassador solemnly admonished the Brazilian government to heed the signs of the times, calling attention to the revolution in Russia to demonstrate that it was necessary

SEMI-OFFICIAL STATEMENT OUT

Also It is Shown That in Austria There is No Idea of Democracy.

Paris, April 16.—A semi-official statement has been issued in Vienna declaring that Austria desires peace with the Russian people and that there is no real obstacle to this aim according to a Zurich dispatch to the Radio Agency.

The dispatch quotes a statement issued by a semi-official press bureau in Vienna in which it is said that the Austro-Hungarian monarchy has taken note of the recent declaration of the Russian provisional government that it does not seek foreign territory but desires a durable peace founded on the rights of peoples to dispose of themselves.

RUSSIAN HERO OF JAP WAR IS UNDER ARREST

Tashkent, Asiatic Russia, Sunday, April 15, Via London, April 16.—3:45 p. m.—Gen. Alexi Kuropatkin, governor general of Turkestan; his assistant, Gen. Yerofoev, and Gen. Sievers, chief of staff, have been arrested by the council of soldiers' delegates.

Gen. Buroff, commanding the first Siberian brigade, and Gen. Tsuomilin, commanding the local brigade, also have been placed under arrest and confined to a guard room.

The officers are charged with distributing arms to Russians in various districts for defense against natives in event of an attack. This action has been held to be of a provocative character.

COMMITTEE OF SENATE VOTES FOR WAR FUND

Not a Member Dissents and It Is Expected to Pass Seven Billion Measure at a Sitting.

SENATE MAY AMEND MEASURE SOMEWHAT

Washington, April 16.—The $7,000,000,000 war revenue bill as passed by the house was approved today by the senate finance committee and will be taken up in the senate tomorrow for passage.

The committee vote was unanimous and there was prospect of an attempt to put the bill through in one session. One change in the bill is to make apparent its purpose of assisting in the prosecution of the war.

Another suggested by Secretary McAdoo is to permit funds raised under the measure to be deposited in banks not members of the federal reserve system and in trust companies. A third is to more clearly exempt certificates of indebtedness from taxation.

The war bill passed in the house late Saturday afternoon by a vote that was unanimous. Speaker Clark voted for the measure, an unusual action for that official.

Meyer London, of New York, socialist, was the only member present who did not vote. Jeannette Rankin, the only woman member, voted for it, though she voted against the war resolution a week ago.

SHORTAGE IN LABOR WORSE.

"The rush of young men to the army and navy is making the labor situation at our shop worse," said Employment Agent W. F. Melching, of the General Electric works, this morning. "So far we have lost thirty-five of our employees by enlistment in the army and navy and when Company E is called out, many more will retire from the shop," Mr. Melching said. "I am not complaining about the patriotism of these young men, understand. The country needs them and they are performing their duty by enlisting." Mr. Melching said. "It is now up to us to fill the vacant places in the shop if we can and we are making an effort in that direction. We want skilled and competent labor of all kinds," he continued.

MILLIONS OF ACRES OF LANDS THAT CAN BE PUT TO TILLAGE

Washington, April 16.—Millions of acres of unallotted public lands in the west and the idle farms of the east and south were pointed to by Secretary Lane in a statement today as places where men who do not enlist for the fighting line may serve their country as effectively as they could at the front.

"Our people cannot all be fighters," the secretary said, "we must have in addition to our armies of fighters, armies of producers, to sustain those who struggle and to maintain those for whom they struggle. Men in close touch with the food supply of this country predicted that if the present decrease in production keeps up for another year, we will face a serious food famine."

SEVERAL TOWNS SOLD MORE THAN FT. WAYNE

Announcement of Winners in Sale of Red Cross Seals is Made.

Contrary to expectations Fort Wayne did not win first in the sale of Red Cross seals, although making a splendid record. Fort Wayne won second prize in the seventh class of cities, the average here being six seals per capita, while Troy, New York, won first with 6.3 per capita, in the same class.

Several cities sold more seals per capita than did Fort Wayne, as shown by announcement of Red Cross seal prize winners by the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis at New York. An unusual number of new records were made by the smaller cities and villages in the last Christmas sale. There were 235 localities selling five or more of the little holiday stickers per capita in a country-wide sale that raised more than $1,000,000 for tuberculosis work.

The little town of Hershey, Pa., with less than 2,000 population, took the lead. Here there were nearly 79 seals for each man, woman and child in the town.

Satin banners will be presented to the pennant winners by the American Red Cross and the National association at a time annual meeting of the latter in Cincinnati, May 9 to 11. Agents in each of the towns selling five or more seals will also receive a certificate of commendation.

COLONEL'S WAR PLANS PLACED BEFORE SENATE

Washington, April 16.—Theodore Roosevelt's plans for raising and accompanying a volunteer expedition abroad were laid before the senate military committee today by Chairman Chamberlain at a meeting called to consider the administration's selective draft bill. Details of the plan were submitted by the colonel to the chairman of the senate and house military committees in response to a request made when he was here recently to confer with the president about his project. While expressing hearty approval of the administration bill Col. Roosevelt insisted the volunteers could be put on the firing line and that the American flag should be there at the earliest possible moment. Members of the committee gave careful study to the proposal but there was no definite indication what action will be taken. The committee was expected to determine today whether to hold public hearings on the administration bill. Whether this is done war department officials and army officers will continue their arguments for the legislation before the two congressional committees.

Panama.—Declared her readiness to assist in any way possible in the protection of the Panama canal.
Costa Rica.—Offered her ports and other territorial waters to the United States for war needs of the American navy.
Brazil.—Relations broken with Germany.
Bolivia.—Relations broken with Germany.
Uruguay.—Endorsed the action of the United States and characterized Germany's submarine warfare as an "insult to humanity."
Paraguay.—Expressed sympathy with the government of the United States "forced into war to rehabilitate the rights of neutrals."
Argentina.—Endorsed the action of the United States as just and right.
Mexico.—Neutral.
State department officials believe it possible that the government of Ecuador may consider itself bound to adopt a somewhat equivocal attitude because of a suggestion made several weeks ago that a conference of neutrals be held at Montevideo to study means for bringing the war to an end.
Guatemala Expected to Break.
Guatemala's proclamation of martial law was still regarded here as a precautionary step taken by President Estrada Cabrera, preliminary to a break with Germany. It was believed that Honduras, Salvador and Nicaragua, the remaining uncommitted nations of Central America, are awaiting action by Guatemala and that they will announce their positions immediately after Guatemala speaks.

The United States has looked to Latin-America for moral support more than for material assistance, but there has been no disposition to undertake the very material assistance that might be rendered if it became necessary. The total peace strength of Latin-America's armies is only 324,000 men, but the potential power is several times that and reports from the South American republics have indicated that no time will be lost in raising fighting forces to their full war strength.

SEEKS PEACE WITH RUSSIA

The statement says that the Austro-Hungarian government is inspired by the same desire and continues:
"Therefore, both having common ends, it is not difficult to find means of arriving at a conclusion. This is much less difficult since his majesty, the emperor of Austria and king of Hungary, in perfect union with his allied monarchs wishes to live in future peace and friendship with the Russian people."

NO DEMOCRACY THERE.

Amsterdam, April 16.—Premier Tisza, of Hungary, is quoted in a Budapest dispatch as having said in the house of magnates:
"As regards the United States we have had occasion to express our point of view, since, as I have previously pointed out, the United States, to our regret, declared itself in a state of war with Germany, the logical conclusion necessarily had to be drawn. That is a precise and concrete fact having no need of explanation. I should make a mistake if I added any explanations."
Premier Tisza's statement was made in reply to an interpellation by Count Anton Sigray. Speaking of Russia the premier said:
"The situation is very clear. No one thinks of following in the internal affairs of the Russian state. The events which have taken place in Russia have changed in no way our interpretation of the aims of the monarchy and the nation in this war. I think that if now by any fresh statement I were to repeat the completely clear declaration made by the allied (Central) powers, I should not be strengthening our position, but only weakening it, and I should not be favoring the cause of peace which we all have before our eyes, but on the contrary should perhaps be compromising it. Consequently I beg the house to content itself with this statement."

WILL ASK COUNCIL TO DONATE FUNDS

W. J. Hosey Receives Copy of Resolution Made by Mayors.

Mayor Hosey expects to ask the city council for a "seed" fund with which to aid poor families of the city in putting out garden plots. Such action was agreed upon by mayors of leading Indiana cities at a meeting, held in Indianapolis, a week ago.
Copy of the resolutions drawn up in conference follows:
"We, the mayors of Indiana, meeting in Indianapolis, as representatives of our municipalities and their people, send to President Wilson and to Governor Goodrich our endorsement of their vigorous efforts to put this nation on a basis to carry out war to a successful conclusion, and to sustain at home our population through war times.
"We declare that there is opportunity for all to answer the call for national service in this crisis. We must wage war against a foreign foe with arms, food and money; we must at the same time wage a war against waste at home.
"We declare against the further waste of soil capable of food production, in and around our cities. We call on our city population for the idle and spare hours that can be diverted toward meeting a very serious food shortage that will confront our centers of population next fall and winter, and may threaten their peace if steps are not now taken by cities to supplement the country's food production.
"We join with the president and governor in the call for men to sustain the flag in war. We declare, however, that the call for national service cannot, in justice, fall solely on the men who are called to arms. Recognizing that the farmers of Indiana already are moving to the performance of national duty in the production of greater crops, we heavily join with Governor Goodrich in issuing a call to the people of Indiana towns and cities to mobilize the vacant yards, lots and greater tracts of lands and to volunteer in the great home-sustaining army of food production. We declare this to be a patriotic service only secondary to answering the call to the fighting line—an obligation for service that all committed to sustaining the national cause, cannot shirk, evade or delegate to others.
"We approve the plan outlined by Governor Goodrich to create a state food director, who shall mobilize under him crop, garden and truck-patch experts to direct this Indiana food production service.
"We advise the immediate creation in each town and city of a state food director, who shall take up and direct the survey of lots; shall at once further the organization of their populations for food production; shall immediately call conferences with employers of labor and arrange for their co-operation; and shall organize the school children and other agencies that can be called into this great voluntary co-operative war service.
"We advise these committees to place themselves under the direction of the state food director, and to call on him to advise them to supply capable, skilled city and district directors for this food production, to the end that land, labor and seed may not be wasted and that the greatest production may result.
"We call on the state chamber of commerce to call on the local chambers to co-operate and to exert their great energies.
"We advise mayors to call on city councils for appropriations to carry on this work; and are advised by Governor Goodrich and Attorney General Stansbury that such appropriations are legal under the Indiana laws."

THE SCORPION NOW INTERNED BY THE TURKS

London, April 16.—(11:40 a. m.)—An official statement issued by the Turkish war office says that the American gunboat Scorpion has been interned.
HAD BEEN EXPECTED.

Washington, April 16.—The internment of the Scorpion has been expected here for some time and is perfectly in accord with the rules necessitating such action for a belligerent war vessel not leaving port within a prescribed time. About two weeks ago the navy department, through the state department, cabled Ambassador Elkus suggesting that the Scorpion leave Turkish waters for the Black sea, but Turkey objected to this on the ground that the sea was dominated by Russia, an enemy of Turkey's ally, Germany. Departure through the Dardanelles was thought impossible and as a result a part of the crew went through Austria into Switzerland before the break with the former country.
TO GIVE BENEFIT TEA.

The Woman's Union Label league has announced two social events for the near future. The first is a benefit tea at the home of Mrs. Amerod next Wednesday afternoon, between 2 and 4 o'clock, at which all members are urged to come and bring a friend. The other event will be a public petro party at App's hall, Wednesday evening, April 25. Mrs. Winifred Redding has been elected to represent the league at the Indiana State Federation of Labor, at Anderson, May 8.

PREVIOUS SERVICE MEN ORGANIZE GUARD

Major J. E. Miller Named Commandant and John H. Johnson Adjutant.

Previous service men, including army, navy, marine or national guard, met in the assembly room of the court house Saturday evening and organized the Allen County Home Guard. There were 125 men present.
Major John E. Miller was named commandant of the new body and John H. Johnson, adjutant. A. D. Zuber was elected quartermaster and the following district captains were chosen: District No. 1, Sergt. Dan Kintz; district No. 2, John Jackson; district No. 3, Captain Otto Meyers; fourth district, Lieut. Peter A. Thompson.
The object of the organization shall be to assist the constituted authorities in this community in the preservation of the peace, the suppression of sedition and the promotion of the interests of the United States of America in the present war with Germany and her allies.
A constitution was adopted. There was some question about the name and the matter has been deferred until the next meeting, which will be held Saturday evening.

GIRLS OF BRYN MAWR MOBILIZE FOR WAR DUTY

Philadelphia, Pa., April 16.—In response to an invitation from the National League of Women's Service, Bryn Mawr students met today to mobilize for war duty.
"If you know how to cook," the invitation says, "don't stop to learn how to become a motor driver. If you can milk a cow, don't undertake to study aviation. The country needs cook and dairy maids right now and if that happens to be your job just now, stick to it and do it a little better than you have been doing it."
M. Carey Thomas, president of Bryn Mawr, presided at the meeting and among those on the program for addresses were Mrs. J. Willis Martin, state chairman of the league, and Miss Sallie Simpson, who was appointed to organize detachments at the woman's colleges.

PRESIDENT HAS GIVEN IMPETUS TO FOOD SLOGAN

Washington, April 16.—Fresh impetus was given to the nation-wide campaign for more food crops today by President Wilson's plea for unity of action in furthering America's success in the world war.
The president's appeal addressed to his "fellow countrymen" urged all the people to join in making the nation a unit for the preservation of its ideals and for the triumph of democracy but particularly emphasizing the need of growers concentrating their energies on planting of crops so that the United States might fulfill its task of feeding the armies and peoples who are fighting Germany. "Without abundant food, alike for the armies and the peoples at war," said the appeal, "the whole great enterprise upon which we have embarked will fail. Upon the farmers of the country, therefore, in large measure rests the fate of the war and the fate of the nations."

All America mourned the death last January of Admiral George Dewey, hero of Manila bay and highest ranking officer of the United States. Dewey's success was due to thorough schooling and discipline. He was born in Montpelier, Vt., Dec. 26, 1837, and was trained at Norwich Military academy at Annapolis. He became lieutenant in 1861 and was under Admiral Farragut on his famous drive to New Orleans.
Commander Smith of the Mississippi did not know the channel, so he called on Dewey for help.
"Do you know the channel, Dewey?" he asked. Dewey did not, but he answered, "Yes."
Under fire of forts on each side, the young lieutenant got the ship safely through the channel.
When the Spanish-American war began in 1898, Dewey was in command of the Asiatic fleet at Hong Kong. With six fighting ships he stole into Manila bay, arriving at Cavite, five miles off Manila, at dawn of May 1. Before him was Admiral Montojo's fleet of ten ships.
The Spanish forts and ships belched fire at him, but he moved on closer without firing a shot.
"When near enough, Dewey turned to Capt. Gridley of the Olympia and quietly said:
"You may fire when you are ready, Gridley."
Immediately the guns of the Asiatic fleet opened fire and when the battle was over, six hours later, Dewey found not an American was lost and only seven wounded, while 200 Spaniards were killed and between 500 and 700 wounded.
Dewey's victory was the greatest event of the war. Congress made him admiral by special act, in 1899, and the whole country sang his praise. He retired from active service and became a member of the naval advisory board, which office he held when he died.

FLAWS IN THE BASIC LAW ARE DISCUSSED

Flaws in the present constitution of Indiana were discussed at the meeting of the Allen County Constitutional forum held in the assembly room of the court house Sunday afternoon. All the modern uncomplimentary adjectives were used to describe the present basic law.

Miss Margaret Macphail and Samuel M. Foster were the principal speakers and they led in the attack against the present constitution of the state and pointed out many of its weaknesses.

DEMOCRACY WILL WIN.

Mayor Hoesy Speaks at Flag Raising on Laselle Street.

"The conflict into which we have entered is a war between Prussianism and democracy," said Mayor William J. Hoesy in his address before 1,500 people who gathered at the flag raising ceremony at Laselle street, Sunday afternoon. The mayor said that democracy would triumph and that a government founded upon the blasphemous doctrine of the divine right of kings is doomed. Peter Offenloch, councilman of the Seventh ward, presided as chairman. Short addresses were delivered by Rev. Charles A. Thiele, pastor of St. Peter's church, and Frank Blomer. The flag was raised by Thomas B. Toomey, a civil war veteran, 85 years old. A salute was fired by a squad from Company E. The Jefferson drum corps also assisted in the program.

Sleeplessness is often induced by constipation and indigestion. When this is the case take Chamberlain's Tablets to correct these disorders, also walk three or four miles every day. DAILY BIBLE READINGS FOR THE HOME

John 12:1-11.

1. Then Jesus six days before the passover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.
2. There they made him a supper; and Martha served; but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.
3. Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odour of the ointment.
4. Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him,
5. Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?
6. This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put therein.
7. Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burying hath she kept this.
8. For the poor always ye have with you; but me ye have not always.
9. Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there; and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.
10. But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death;
11. Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.

The President's Appeal.

The address of President Wilson to the people of the nation carries its own appeal. No words can add to its strength or make its note louder or clearer. It is a call to all Americans to be loyal and devotedly American. In a time like this no sentiment, interest or personal concern can be set above the security of the nation and the virtuous triumph of its arms. The same duty devolves upon all. Everybody can do something to advance the cause of their country, which is the cause of democracy the whole world around. Whatever it is that each one finds it his part to do should be his ungrudging, his freely-given service to his nation.

"The supreme test of the nation has come," says President Wilson. "we must all speak, act and serve together." Of a surety we must, or the day lies not far ahead when we shall have little of a country for which to "speak, act and serve." If America is to prove herself a nation in any true sense—a nation with a spirit knitting all together into a homogeneous, strong and advancing people, loving their land, cherishing its democracy and ready to uphold and defend their liberty and institutions at all costs, this hour of trial must prove it. It is the test of those things that make nations. We have a vast and rich territory, we have wealth beyond estimate, we have a civilization that in many ways has led and is leading the world, we have more than one hundred millions of people assembled from all lands—we have every material resource and development that can make for power and advancement. Have we the spirit that alone can make a nation? Some deny it. The issue of this crisis will tell that story gloriously or with shame.

There is a rapidly growing sign that the people of the United States are going to prove themselves worthy of their fathers, worthy of the priceless heritage had from the fathers. War entails some measure of sacrifice to all. Of some much may be required—life itself. Of those whose high privilege it cannot be to lay down life there is none who cannot be of service. To the man who must bear arms and the woman whose heroic part must be to support the anguish of dread and the pain of bereavement there comes alike the call to duty. And to all others is vouchsafed a high and useful part in the cause of their country. Some must work and some must yield their wealth and all must give to the nation the best of their spirit and unflinching and unflinching good faith in its rectitude and its right to triumph.

The production of food, the making of munitions, the bearing of financial burdens, the support of industry and the maintenance of commerce and, in short, the keeping of the nation in strength and activity for the trials it must take upon itself by land and sea, require of all of us ready and spirited service. All men cannot go to the fighting line; all women cannot serve in the Red Cross. Upon such as cannot render these services of duty must fall the tasks of supporting in every way those whose lot takes them to the front.

It is the "supreme test of the nation." We "must all speak, act and serve together." President Wilson calls one hundred million people to the colors. There must be no laggards in the service; no stragglers behind the nation's advancing train.

If the senate will acquit itself with the credit and honor that the house did in dealing with the seven-billion dollar war bill and then if the two will bend themselves to that other essential task of giving the nation an army bill that will prove a strength and not a weakness, the country will be about ready to dismiss the lawmakers with the tribute of "well-done, good and faithful servants; enter into your reward next voting time."

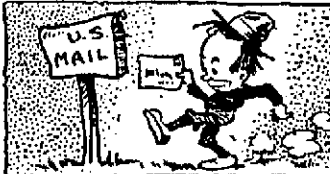

Latin-America is displaying democratic spirit and calculated good sense in admirable proportions. Nothing better will come out of the world war to enrich the western world than the bringing together of the republics of the great southern continent in spirit and purpose with the good mother of them all.

WAR ON CATS, NOT DOGS.

Editor of The Sentinel:—

War is declared on overt chickens and unleashed dogs by Chief Lenz. Why not declare war on the alley and backyard cats? Because, all summer long, in our growing gardens our birds, the strongest allies of the gardener, are on guard. Keen-eyed and quick in action, they discover and destroy the countless insects that prey on our growing vegetables. Without them there would be meager crops. But the most dangerous and destructive enemy of our birds is the soft-purring domestic cat. So, why not declare war on the cats and let us have more burglar-alarm dogs to protect our homes night and day? Away with the cat, the enemy of our song birds. JACK D. Fort Wayne, Ind., April 14, 1917.

UNION IS STRENGTH.

Well folks, a young editorial today, kinda serious like. These days while the eagle is screaming don't be a hang-nail, left-handed thinker, or a pacifist. Remember the scenario writer Aesop? That boy slapped off a few yarns that were cuckoo. For getting a cigar every time he hit the mark he'd have a corner on the tobacco market. Here's one of his after dinner speeches that should be let filter through the think tank. The one about old man that had a flock of boys who were always getting into a jam with one another. It made the old boy daffy after trying every way he could to keep the young misters all in the same boat, but nothing doing, they kept growling at one another and were always there with a snap. One day the old gent got a hunch. He went out and got a bunch of kindling wood and asked each one to try and break it over his knee. They all tried, but each one struck out. Then he untied the bundle and gave each one a stick and then told them to do the same stunt over again. Why Leonard it was easy now—nothing to it. He says to the sons: "There my sons, united you will be more than a match for your enemies, but if you scrap with one another and separate, your weakness will leave you open to those who attack you."

UNION IS STRENGTH.

So customers stick together. Everybody in step.

About Rheumatism.

Do you know that more than nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism are simply muscular rheumatism due to cold or damp, or chronic rheumatism which attacks the larger joints, knees, hips and shoulders. Neither of these varieties require any internal treatment. All you need is a free application of Chamberlain's Liniment with vigorous massage to effect a cure. Try it.—Advertisement.

MAKING A CONSTITUTION

PREPARED BY

JOHN A. LAPP,

Director of the Indiana Bureau of Legislative Information.

THE BILL OF RIGHTS.

(Copyright 1917 by John A. Lapp.)

The United States constitution and every state constitution have a bill of rights which is designed to protect certain rights of life, liberty and property which from long usage people have come to recognize as sacred. Many of these rights have become so intimately a part of the people's conscience and life that a violation of them is hardly possible even without constitutional check, but the people make doubly sure by clearly declaring them in their constitutions.

For centuries the struggle for religious freedom raged throughout the world and was finally settled forever in favor of freedom. From the earliest state constitution the principle has been embodied in the fundamental laws of the states and we recognize it universally.

"All men shall have the right to worship God according to the dictates of their own consciences."

"No preference shall be given by law to any creed and no man shall be compelled to attend, erect, or support any place of worship against his consent."

"No religious test shall be required as a qualification for any office."

No money shall be drawn from the treasury for the support of any religious or theological institution."

Thus run the phrases of the bill of rights of Indiana in safeguarding religious freedom against the assaults of bigotry and prejudice.

These provisions in the state constitution protect against state and local laws and official acts while similar provisions in the federal constitution protect against the laws and acts of the federal government.

The right to speak and write freely one's opinion is guaranteed by all modern constitutions subject only to the limitation that a person shall be liable for the abuse of the privilege.

Free speech is the cornerstone of English liberty and we inherited it and further strengthened it by bold assertion of the right. Throughout our whole history it has been fostered. We have allowed grave abuses at times because it seemed better to allow error and abuse to correct error and abuse rather than to interfere with a right so fundamental.

The United States constitution declares, "Congress shall make no law abridging the freedom of speech of the press" and the Indiana state constitution declares that: "No law shall be passed restraining the free interchange of thought and opinion or restricting the right to speak, write or print freely on any subject whatever, but for the abuse of that right every person shall be responsible."

In the excitement of great crises and in the turmoil of politics there is often danger that the majority in power may attempt to suppress individual opinion or the opinion of the minority. Sometimes there appears justification for such action when vicious attacks are made such as those which were hurled against Washington and Lincoln in times of national distress; but in the long run, freedom to express the right opinion is better than the power to suppress the wrong opinion.

"The power to suppress opinion is illegitimate," said John Stuart Mill in his great work, "On Liberty." "The best government has no more title to it than the worst."

Men may not slander nor libel other men without standing the consequences. Free speech and press is not a license to produce falsehoods about others with impunity. Every man has a constitutional right to appeal to the courts to protect him in his person, property or reputation. It is not to protect miscreants who slander and libel but to enable people to publish the truth for justifiable ends.

Primarily it is a protection against arbitrary action of any government which seeks to suppress opinions contrary to its purposes.

"Every man's house is his castle," is a phrase which expresses the right of the people to be secure in their homes against any unlawful interference. It is an intolerable condition when public officials or police officers may enter a man's house to make a search without a warrant.

Americans have protested against any such searches and from the days when English officers claimed the right to search the homes of the colonists for smuggled goods it has been a cardinal principle. In those days James Otis, who left the employ of the crown to defend the colonists who resisted search under the "writs of assistance" declared: "Now one of the most essential branches of English liberty is the freedom of one's house, and whilst he is quiet, he is as well guarded as a prince in his castle." This writ if it should be declared legal would totally annihilate this privilege.

Custom house officers may enter our houses when they please. We are commanded to permit their entry. Their menial servants may enter, may break locks, bars and everything in their way. . . . It appears to me the worst instrument of arbitrary power, the most destructive of English liberty and the fundamental principle of law that ever was found in an English law book.

To safeguard these rights forever, the federal constitution declared "The right of the people to be secured in their persons, houses, papers and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures shall not be violated and no warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by oath and affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched and the persons or things to be seized." This clause protects against search and seizure by federal officials and not against search and seizure by state officials but Indiana adopted exactly the same clause in its constitution and thus safeguarded the people against any search except upon a warrant properly issued to search a particular place for particular things.

The right of trial by jury came to us out of the struggle of the English people for liberty and was adopted by this country without change. Our constitutions safeguard this right as it was given to them from England and everywhere we recognize that every

"In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial by an impartial jury of the state and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have assistance of counsel for his defense."

Thus declares the constitution of the United States. The rights enumerated are thus protected against national laws and national officials. Substantially the same declaration is found in most of the state constitutions and thus the states are kept from interfering with the rights of trial by jury.

In civil cases, also, the federal and state constitutions guarantee a trial by jury when the cause is large enough to warrant it—the provision of the United States constitution requires that the amount in controversy exceed twenty dollars.

In practice many cases are decided by the judge but in all criminal cases and most civil cases a jury trial may be demanded in state and federal courts.

The right to trial is safeguarded beyond attack but the right may be nullified if care is not taken to see that the judgment is the "fair judgment of his peers" and not the judgment of a packed jury selected by an unfair system. The constitution should go further than merely declare the right to a jury trial and require a fair method of selection of jurors. Without it the mere provision for a jury trial may not amount to much.

In many states the idea is developing that civil cases may be decided by a three-fourths or five-sixths vote of a jury instead of requiring a unanimous vote. This prevents the stubborn man on a jury from preventing a decision in the face of the facts. The question will undoubtedly be considered by the Indiana convention.

QUESTIONS FOR INVESTIGATION.
1. Why is it best to permit free speech when men misuse the privilege?
2. What possible evils might result if the government of the state or nation had a right to prevent criticism of its acts?
3. Can a man be compelled to allow officials to examine his books and papers? Under what right does the government inspect factories or food establishments or examine accounts of public utilities?
4. What are the advantages and disadvantages of verdicts by less than a unanimous jury?
5. How are jurors selected?

TRY IT AND SEE!

Lift your corns or calluses off with fingeral Doleen's hurt a bit!

A noted Cincinnati chemist discovered a new ether compound and called it freezone and it now can be had in tiny bottles as here shown for a few cents from any drug store.

You simply apply a few drops of freezone upon a tender corn or painful callus and instantly the soreness disappears. Then shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you can just lift it off with the fingers.

No pain, not a bit of soreness, either when applying freezone or afterwards and it doesn't even irritate skin.

Hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes, also toughened calluses just shrivel up and lift off so easy. It is wonderful! Seems magical. It works like a charm. Genuine freezone has a yellow label. Don't accept any except with the yellow label.—Advertisement.

WASHINGTON SCHOOL P.-T. WORK. Installs Bathroom in Schoolhouse for Use of Children. The parent-teacher club of the Washington school has taken a big stride toward civic betterment of public school pupils of its district in the way of placing a bathroom with all equipment in the schoolhouse. The work has just been completed and a woman living near the building has been engaged to give the children baths every Friday at the expense of the parent-teacher club. Moreover any child in need of new underwear, hose, waist or garters or just buttons on the clothing is replenished, as the needs of the case demand. Children from homes not supplied with bathrooms are the ones who receive the benefit of this movement for health and comfort as well as right ideas of cleanliness and duty to one's self. The money for the project has been raised by the club in various ways with some help from the school children in the way of collecting old papers and selling tickets for entertainments. The officers of the club and the various chairmen and their assistants who have been instrumental in bettering the environment of children are: Mrs. Simon Ackerman, president; Mrs. W. B. Platt, Mrs. C. M. Boall, Mrs. Henry Jordan, Mrs. W. I. Battin, Mrs. Herman Pollak, Mrs. Frank Bond, Mrs. Harvey Crane, Mrs. Hugh Keegan, and many others including Miss Armstrong, principal of the building.

Hanna School P.-T. Club. A meeting of the parent-teacher club of the Hanna school will be held in the school auditorium next Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The entire program will be given by men. One subject to be considered will be "Good Health an Essential for Good Work," another will be "Manual Training, Its Correlation With the Essentials," the third subject is "A Common Sense Curriculum," and the fourth will be, "What a Good School Can Do for the Child from a Business Man's Standpoint."

AT THE MAJESTIC. "A World of Pleasure" Tonight. "A World of Pleasure," the huge, glittering, tenebrous Winter Garden spectacular, will be the attraction at the Majestic tonight, coming to this city following its profitable and pleasing engagements in New York, Chicago, Boston, Philadelphia, San Francisco, New Orleans and other large cities. Prodigious variety expresses this colossal entertainment which in every particular is huge and dazzling, going its predecessors one better. In the present production the costumes are perhaps more picturesque, if a little bizarre, and more colorful and certainly richer in texture and more costly than those employed in any previous Winter Garden production. And when it comes to novelty of scenes, there are sufficient to please the taste of even the most discriminating. Interpreting the principal roles is an all-star cast, while assisting them is a company of over 100. The play was staged by J. C. Huffman, the Winter Garden wizard of stagecraft. The music is by Sigismund Romberg, and the dialogue and lyrics by Harold Atteridge.

AT THE PALACE. IT'S A WINNER. New Palace Has a Champion Bill This Week. The New Palace has achieved a bill that doesn't sag in a single spot. It starts right off on high with every cylinder hitting and keeps going until the lovely finale of Harrison Reynolds' engaging little musical comedy, The Lingerer Shop, which concludes the smashup show. The bill opens with the Cyrelling McNutts, an entirely new notion of cycling novelties, in which an acrobatic clown, a girl with a form that would put the green in Annette Kellerman's eyes, and a nite of a child who can do tricks on a bicycle and sing at the same time, can turn flip flops and make a curtain speech, furnish some of the fun. Jessie and Mabel Miller, a sister act of real distinction, offers a girl who can play the piano and the piano accordion and who can fairly make a cornet sing, and a lovely little partner whose dancing of the hula hula gives a new conception of that much abused dance. Fred Holmes and Lulu Wells' skit, "On the Door Step," is delightful mingling of comedy chatter, clever song and sprightly dance done by two polished vaudeville folks. Their songs are all new and their comedy talk is laugh evoking.

Grace Emmett has brought "Mrs. Murphy's Second Husband" to the New Palace again. This hilarious Irish character comedienne is an old friend and grows more lovable every time she comes here. In her company this year is a former Fort Wayne girl, Miss Mayme Pink, who is remembered by scores of her friends of ten years ago, when she lived on South Broadway.

Oliver Brisco, a singing comedienne, who is different from the others, has some amusing numbers in her repertoire, the best being her song comparing the present with the days of 1861. Harrison Reynolds, the eminent light comedian, and his haberdashery shop, with its lingerie adjunct, furnishes fifteen minutes of laughs and eye filling visions of feminine loveliness in various states of dishabille. Mr. Reynolds, as the young Britisher, with the funny notions about how to run a store, is a riot of fun and he's got enough pretty girls to keep a sea shore resort supplied.

Thinness Easily Overcome. (From "Health and Beauty.") Further evidence is being presented almost daily that a recent compound of new chemical elements combined in a tablet with hypophosphites is in reality proving a blessing to the abnormally thin men and women, for it can be demonstrated beyond doubt that a regular course of three or four months' treatment brings an increase in weight of from 10 to 20 pounds, with a decided improvement of health and color, too. For self administration the most popular form is to be found in three grain hypo-nuclease tablets, obtainable in sealed packages from the best apothecary shops, with full directions.

TWO ARE INJURED IN MOTORCYCLE MISHAP
Eva McKinley, aged 14, sustained deep cuts about the head and body bruises, and Howard McKinley, 23, 1607 Beach avenue, had his right leg broken when the motorcycle on which they were both riding, ran against an automobile, Saturday evening. McKinley struck the stationary automobile, because his niece on the handlebars of the motorcycle obstructed his view, he said.
The automobile, which belonged to P. B. Homscher, 2318 Hoagland avenue, was standing at the curb near the intersection of Burgess street and St. Mary's avenue. When the motorcycle sideswiped the auto, both McKinley and his niece tumbled from the machine, which traveled on for several yards. The girl was thrown against a tree. The pair were removed to the St. Joseph hospital.

ORDERS HOW TO MOBILIZE

Have Been Received by Officers of the National Guard.

316 MEN ACCEPTED
IN TWO BATTERIES

Both Artillery and the Infantry Need More Recruits.

With the time drawing nigh when orders for mobilization are received for the local units of state militia, officers of the artillery and infantry Monday morning received instructions from the war department how to mobilize when the call is sounded.

Thus far three hundred and sixteen men have been accepted in the two batteries. Of this number 216 have been chosen in Battery D, while the remainder have been selected in Battery B. It is the plan of the officers to get permission from the government to transfer some of the best men of the old battery as officers in the new organization.

Both branches of the service are in need of many more recruits and although the rush of a week ago has subsided, a few men now and then come into the office to file applications. Saturday afternoon eighteen men were secured by the batteries. Monday morning there were ten more.

The government has purchased three carloads of food for the horses of the battery in this city. The hay and grain was purchased from Fort Wayne merchants.

Stage Benefit Show.
Arrangements have been completed with the management of the Temple Stock company and the captains of the battery and infantry to stage a benefit show at the Temple theater, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week. The current play, "Trail of the Lonesome Pine," will be given. Tickets will be placed in the hands of young ladies in the stores of the city.

Hartford City Lade Join.
With a large delegation before them and accompanied by a delegation of citizens from their home town, twenty-nine youths from Hartford City, made up of all the young men in the senior class of the high school there, marched down main street from the interurban station to recruiting headquarters, Sunday afternoon. The youths all passed examination and are enrolled in the coast artillery. They were sent away to Columbus, Ohio, Sunday night.

Seventy Recruits Sunday.
On the Sabbath day services were held for army service. Many of the number came from towns near Fort Wayne. Captain Ryan expects at least 100 men before the sun goes down Monday. Recruiting was brisk all day Monday and many of the young men were from Fort Wayne.

John's Heart Hurt
TO EXTENT OF $1,000
John C. Conrad and Nina Foltz were to have been married on March 27, 1917, the date which was agreeable to both says John. However, when the day arrived and after he had made all arrangements she refused to marry him, he says.

Now John has begun suit against his former sweetheart asking that the court give him judgment of $1,000 as heart pain. In his complaint on a breach of contract for marriage he alleges that he made all preparations for the marriage at a great expense and then was forced to call it off. He charges that by reason of this he was caused to suffer much embarrassment.

In the complaint he also states that he is still willing to marry Nina, but that she has refused even to set another date. E. L. Siebold is his attorney.

BRITISH TANK
SHIP IS SUNK
BY A TORPEDO

New York, April 16.—The British tank ship Narragansett, a ship of 8,260 tons and one of the largest carriers of bulk oil ever built, has been torpedoed and sunk somewhere off the Irish coast, according to word brought here today by officers on an arriving ship. The Narragansett was owned by the Anglo-American Oil company represented here by A. B. Ames. At the office of the company it was said no word of the vessel had been received, although several reports that she had met with disaster had reached here from unofficial sources. The Narragansett was last reported when she left here for a British port on March 5. She was built in 1903 at Greenock, Scotland, was 512 feet long and could carry 11,000 tons of oil.

HOSPITAL SUPPLY WORK

Dr. Macbeth Volunteers to Fit Up Room for Red Cross Society.

The new class in the making of hospital supplies began work Monday morning at Red Cross headquarters on East Berry street and will continue throughout the remainder of the week under the direction of Miss Mary Johnson, expert Red Cross nurse from Chicago. Each day this week Miss Johnson will be assisted by four different members of last week's class.

At the end of the week the two classes will listen to an address by Dr. E. J. McGowan on the different uses of the bandages, drains and other things that have been made. This will be followed by a written examination, the papers being forwarded to the headquarters at Washington, where they will be graded. Those who pass will be eligible to teach. Those who assisted Miss Johnson Monday were Mrs. George Beers, Mrs. Hunter, Mrs. McDonald and Miss Wilhelm.

Dr. A. H. Macbeth has very generously consented to fit up one of the rooms on the second floor of the headquarters for the use of the class in the home care of the sick. He will bring the necessary articles from his hospital on Lewis street. One room will be fitted up this week and other rooms later, if needed.

The ladies' drill team of Yeoman lodge, No. 376, will give a benefit dance Tuesday evening at Tanner's hall, the proceeds from which is to be donated to the local Red Cross chapter.

A call for knitted articles used by men engaged in mine-laying, submarine service and patrol boat work has been issued by the comfort committee of the navy league. Women who knit make sleeveless jackets, mufflers and wristlets. Mrs. Kate P. Beamer, 2432 Webster street, has the directions for the articles approved by the navy department and will be glad to furnish them. She has also volunteered her services as a teacher.

Friars Will Give Benefit.
The vaudeville performance given last Thursday evening by the Friars and their young women friends will be repeated on Monday evening, April 23, at the Palace theater for the benefit of the Red Cross society.

COUNCIL TO ORGANIZE
AT THE NEXT MEETING

Temporary Officers Will Be Retained Until Next Monday.

"Fort Wayne Council for Patriotic Service," is the name which was chosen by those in attendance at a meeting at the Commercial club Monday afternoon for an organization here. The council will consist of one representative from every organization in this city professing allegiance to the country and the object is to unite the forces of the city for patriotic service, such as the conservation of foodstuffs, clothing and other necessities, also for the raising of crops on all available areas.

Temporary officers have been chosen and these will continue in office until the next meeting to be held next Monday afternoon at the Commercial club at which time a permanent organization will be made. They are W. H. Scheiman, president, and Charles R. Lane, secretary.

Many organizations were represented at the meeting Monday and all those not heard from will receive invitations to send an elected representative to the next session. Any that are overlooked have been asked to come forward of their own accord for it has been stated that the object is to make the organization "as wide as Fort Wayne."

The idea of forming this organization was derived from the talk given by H. H. Merrick, of Chicago, before the members of the Quest club and their guests at the banquet given at the Anthony last Friday night. It is expected that many other cities will follow the lead. Fort Wayne is the third city in the country to have such a patriotic council.

REVEALED SEALED BIDS.

Sealed bids were being filed Monday for the $105,000 worth of city coliseum bonds yet to be disposed of. The bids will be opened Monday evening or Tuesday morning. It is expected that the bonds will sell at a good premium. Thirty thousand dollars of the city coliseum fund was raised by popular sale of the bonds in $100 and $500 lots.

Members of Wayne circle, No. 45, Ladies of the G. A. R., will meet on Tuesday evening with Mrs. Holmes, 536 Organ avenue. Important business will be transacted.

POLICE STACK ARMS
OF GERMAN SOCIETIES

Franco-Prussian War Patriots Turn Over Fifty Old Muskets.

Fifty muskets of ancient design were turned over to the police Monday morning by the German societies of Landwehr verein and Waffengenossern, made up of veterans of the Franco-Prussian war. Members of these organizations have nearly all been naturalized and would not come under the classification of "alien enemies," strictly speaking, but their leaders wish to show that they are heartily in accord with the United States government.

More than 100 rifles and muskets, three score of revolvers, several swords and sabers and one bayonet have been delivered to police headquarters since the order was received here Saturday night that weapons held by all aliens must be brought to police headquarters. The battle pieces are being stored in the detectives' room on the second floor of the station.

Chief Leniz has not yet started to make investigation to learn if there are more of the classified "alien enemies" who have not brought in their weapons. He will probably do so, Tuesday, he says.

Several German flags were turned in to police headquarters Monday afternoon by German societies of the city. These organizations will ask the return of the banners after the war, but at present there is no ensign but "Old Glory," their officers say.

Police have no power to excuse any citizen from delivering their implements of war. The order from T. W. Gregory, attorney general, following "Under the proclamation of the president, dated April 6, 1917, it is unlawful for any alien enemies to have in their possession the following articles:

"Any firearms, weapon, or implement of war, or component part thereof; ammunition, Maxim or other silencer, bomb or explosive, or material used in manufacture of explosives; any air craft or wireless apparatus, or any form of signaling device, or any form of cipher code, or any paper, document, or book, written or printed in cipher or in which there may be invisible writing.

"Your co-operation in enforcing this proclamation is earnestly desired; and you are requested, if possible, to post notices or otherwise notify all alien enemies within your locality to bring to police headquarters and surrender any and all articles which it is unlawful to have in their possession. A detailed receipt should be given for all articles so surrendered, and at the close of the war such articles should be returned.

GREAT BRITAIN

London, April 16.—President Wilson's appeal to the American people is given great prominence in the evening newspapers which print the proclamation textually.

"It goes straight to the heart of the great war problem," says the Westminster Gazette, "and will be read with great appreciation by the allied nations."

"No message addressed by their governments to any of the countries at war," adds the newspaper, "has better combined an appeal to the part with shrewd, practical counsel and shown a keener eye to the fundamentals of the situation."

The remains will be brought to this city, arriving at 9:15 o'clock Monday evening, and will be taken to the Klachin & Melching parlors.

JOHN D. WILL ATTEND
BROTHER'S FUNERAL

Frank Rockefeller Dies in His Apartments at Cleveland, Ohio.

New York, April 16.—John D. Rockefeller planned to leave New York today for Cleveland to attend the funeral of his brother, Frank Rockefeller, who died there yesterday afternoon after a quarrel the two had some years ago. William Rockefeller will accompany his brother to Cleveland it was stated. The funeral is to be held there tomorrow.

A blood clot on the brain as a result of a relapse he sustained following an intestinal operation a month ago was the cause of Rockefeller's death. He was seventy-two years old. For several years he was associated with his brothers, John D. and William A. Rockefeller, in the oil business, but later became a stockman following a quarrel with John D., with whom he had not been on speaking terms for a number of years.

Frank Rockefeller had frequently visited in Fort Wayne and was well known by several Fort Wayne residents. He often came here during the time that Frank DeLoach Robinson and M. Stanley owned the traction company, now the Fort Wayne & Northern Indiana Traction company.

A twenty thousand dollar damage suit was the curtain raiser for the April or summer term of circuit court Monday morning. The case which marked the opening of the new term was brought by Myer Levin against the Gritput company of South Whitley, and is being tried before a jury.

The case was brought here on a change of venue from the Whitley circuit court. The plaintiff is seeking damages as the result of injuries sustained while in the employ of the defendants in an accident which he alleges was due to the carelessness and negligence of the defendants.

In his complaint the plaintiff states that he fell a distance of twelve feet when a scaffold gave way. He alleges that he fell on his face and that some heavy timber fell on him resulting in permanent injuries.

Monday afternoon the case was suddenly brought to a close when a settlement was reached outside of court.

Sheriff Gillette arrested him Sunday evening.

ESCAPED CONVICTS
TAKEN AT ELKHART

Four Prisoners Escape at Michigan City and Two Are Nailed.

Elkhart, Ind., April 16.—Claire Robinson, 19, colored, and Jack Burke, 40, both of whom escaped from the Indiana state prison last night at Michigan City, where they were sent for murder, were captured here today by Henry Wise and Charles Ritter, detectives for the Lake Shore railroad. The two men were arrested when they refused to heed the order of the railroad men to stop. They came here on a freight train. When taken to the police station they were found to have on prison garments. Later word of the escape reached here. Burke killed Lew Keller, of South Bend, a policeman, several years ago.

ONE DEKALB COUNTY MAN.
Michigan City, Ind., April 16.—By scaling a 24-foot wall, four men in the department of the criminal insane at the Indiana state prison here, escaped last night and were still at large today. A fifth man who climbed over the wall was captured with a broken ankle a few blocks from the prison. Two of the escaped men are said by the authorities to be dangerous.

The four men who got away are Charles Hull, 26, Vigo county, sent to prison Oct. 1, 1915, petit larceny; Claire Robinson, 29, colored, DeKalb county, murder; Jack Burke, 40, LaPorte county, murder, and William Schrey, 29, Floyd county, sent to prison May 18, 1914, John Roderick, 46, Delaware county, charged with petit larceny, was the man who broke his ankle.

The men gained access to the prison yard by sawing bars in a window. They made a grapple hook out of bars, tied towels together for a rope, and in that way got over the wall. The rope broke and let one of the escaped men fall. Roderick tried to mend it with his shirt, but it broke as he started down the outside and he fell.

REV. HOSTETTER MAKES
APPEAL FOR SACRIFICE

Rev. Hostetter Says This is No Time for Traitors and Criticisms.

"Deeply we deplore the war. Our hearts are filled with anguish at the very thought of this sad necessity. But America is now in the conflict and that can mean but one thing for me. It means that I am in and must nerve myself to make any sacrifice that my country may require of me. To my mind this is the attitude that must be taken by every true citizen of this republic. Let there be no divisions among us, no traitors, criticisms nor contentions, no half-heartedness nor selfish reservations. Let us stand by the flag and support our country in the great conflict she is waging for the freedom of the masses and the rights of humanity. We hereby pledge to America every vestige of strength and the very last drop of blood that God has given us."

The above is a part of the stirring message delivered Sunday evening by the Rev. H. B. Hostetter in a patriotic service at the Third Presbyterian church. The church was beautifully decorated in the national colors.

Rev. Hostetter declared that in many instances the only safe defense is a vigorous fight to the finish. "Righteousness is more precious than peace," he said. "I verily believe that a war that is waged for justice, for defense of great, vital principles, for true freedom and the rights of humanity will be owned and used by the God of Battles in carrying out his great purpose."

TRACTORS TO PLOW
SUBURBAN TRACTS

Gas Company Gives Fourteen Acres for Trucking Use.

Tractor engines will be the "un-checkable tanks" in Fort Wayne's food drive this summer. The machines are to be donated by the International Harvester company, which corporation will also furnish men for operating the tractor in plowing and cultivating suburban tracts.

Motor power will be used on all Fort Wayne land which is of larger area than three acres. The engines will be ready for starting their work next week. The motor company asks only that the city furnish the fuel for the machines. Mayor Hoesy, who, with Robert Kelly, was instrumental in bringing about the donation by the Harvester company, believes that he can induce an oil company to furnish the fuel, for the advertising it would afford.

L. E. Mulholland, president of the Northern Indiana Gas and Electric company, offered to the city in behalf of that corporation a fourteen acre plot in the southwest part of the city. Mayor Hoesy promptly replied that the offer would be accepted. The tract is known as the Thompson plat and lies at the intersection of the Walshaw railroad and St. Mary's river. It is adjoined by Thompson avenue and Riedmiller avenue.

Mayor Hoesy states that he has been promised the use of a large strip of land controlled by the Woodward Builders' association. He expects to have work started on all ground obtainable as soon as possible.

It is the mayor's plan at present to have a committee appointed for overseeing the ground breaking and cultivation of city tracts. Care of the garden plots may be turned over to societies of the city later or may be cared for by the city officials. In the latter case the products would be sold at the market, Hoesy says.

TO SEND INVITERS.

Mayor Hoesy will send official inviters to all towns where mass meetings are to be held in relation to the Lexington day celebration, to be observed here next Thursday. The envoys sent out from Fort Wayne will circulate the headlines with which this city bids all neighbors to attend the great patriotic day festivities.

Begin To Purify Your Winter-Blood

Grandmother's Old-Fashioned Sulphur and Molasses Dtt It.

But Not So Well As This Sulphur Tablet—Sugar Coated.

Through the winter the blood accumulates poisons because you do not perspire enough, because you do not live in the open air, and because you eat more meat, much and other rich foods. Every spring we feel sluggish, constipated, liver and kidney ills beset us, colds and chronic coughs, pimples, boils and carbuncles, all evidence of impure, thick, sluggish blood.

Sulphur Tablets (not sulphur tablets) are composed of extracts of roots and herbs, combined with sulphur and cream of tartar—and no better physic, blood-tonic and blood cleanser has ever been developed. Every spring thousands who already know their value take them to purify the system of Winter Poisons. Now is the time to begin, so you won't be attacked by serious ailments when Spring and Summer come. Sold by all druggists 50c per sealed tube with full directions.

OLD FOLKS NEED "CASCARETS" FOR LIVER, BOWELS

Salts, calomel, pills act on bowels like pepper acts in nostrils.

Enjoy life! Don't stay bilious, sick, headachy and constipated.

Get a 10-cent box now. Most old people must give to the bowels some regular help, else they suffer from constipation. The condition is perfectly natural. It is just as natural as it is for old people to walk slowly. For age is never so active as youth. The muscles are less elastic. And the bowels are muscles. So all old people need Cascarets. One might as well refuse to aid weak eyes with glasses as to neglect this gentle aid to weak bowels. The bowels must be kept active. This is important at all ages, but never so much as at fifty. Age is not a time for harsh physics. Youth may occasionally whip the bowels into activity. But a lax can't be used every day. What the bowels of the old need is a gentle and natural tonic. One that can be constantly used without harm. The only such tonic is Cascarets, and they cost only 10 cents per box at any drug store. They work while you sleep.—Advertisement.

FLAG MIDWAY AT ELECTRIC WORKS

Eight Banners Floating
Within a Radius of
About 200 Feet.

The driveway which enters the yards at the General Electric works, just back of the office building and leads to the east and south, terminates in a court formed by a number of one-story buildings used as storage houses for certain kinds of material. In the circle are nine little buildings, and last week a neat pole, surmounted by an eagle and bearing an American flag, was mounted over each, forming a most patriotic scene and giving to the place the name of "Flag Midway." The departments represented in this patriotic group and the men who have charge of them are: The plumbing shed, John Lewis; scrap shed, William Martin; casting shed, Samuel Stocks; welding shed, Earl Gerhardt; rock drill shed, Joseph Sanders; oil house, Fred Dickey; thermalstatic metal, Walter Anthony; and oil separating, A. Struba.

THE ROUND HOUSE FLAG.

Dedication Saturday Attended by Hundreds of People.

Hundreds of people, chiefly the residents of that part of the city, assembled on the hilltop west of the Pennsylvania round house, Saturday afternoon to witness the dedication of the handsome flag staff and flag which was accomplished under the auspices of the employees at the round house. The exercises were similar to those of the dedication of the shop employees' flag at Holman and Barr street at noon Saturday, which was mentioned in detail by The Sentinel. Battery B, with two pieces of artillery in charge of Capt. J. C. Scheffer, was on hand to fire three shots as a salute to the magnificent banner when it was opened to the breeze and Capt. Ray McAdams had charge of Company E, which "presented arms" when the bugle sounded "to the colors." Master Mechanic E. B. Grist made a few remarks, praising the men for their loyalty not only to their country but to the Pennsylvania company, their employer. Hon. Harry Hilgemann, the chief speaker, eloquently expressed the sentiments of the crowd in his patriotic address, as indicated by the frequent applause.

given. And the Elks' band played several patriotic numbers and the round house quartet sang "America," followed by the "Star Spangled Banner." The flag was purchased by the employees of the round house, whose patriotism is not exceeded by any body of shopmen.

GAVE BROTHERHOOD A FLAG.

Wolf & Dessauer Present American Banner to B. R. T.

A greatly appreciated patriotic feature of the banquet of Fort Wayne lodge, No. 136, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, Sunday evening was the presentation of a handsome American flag to the lodge by Wolf & Dessauer, the presentation speech in behalf of the generous contributors being made by Peter Collins, one of the oldest, in point of service of the members of the local brotherhood. Holding the banner aloft, he paid tribute to the country and sentiments it represented and offered a vote of thanks to the donors, which was given by those present, who arose to their feet and burst into cheers. The lodge also accepted the invitation of Dr. A. G. Emrick to participate in the ceremonies in celebration of Lexington day and the new flag will be carried in the procession. To arrange for the event a committee consisting of F. E. Todd, chairman; Peter Collins, H. B. Grafmiller, J. B. Latourrette, R. A. Knoff, George Clark and P. J. Sullivan was appointed at the meeting Sunday afternoon. The lodge held its regular meeting in Unity hall, Sunday afternoon, following the business session with a 6 o'clock chop suey dinner and a social and it was at the latter that the flag presentation was made.

HOBSON WILL RECOVER.

Nickel Plate Brakeman Will Not Lose Arm or Leg.

Encouraging news concerning E. B. Hobson comes from his bedside in the hospital at Bellevue. It is now believed that neither the injured leg or arm will have to be amputated and that both will be saved and restored to normal condition. Mr. Hobson, it will be remembered, was run over by the trucks of a car which was being pushed by a Nickel Plate switch engine in the Bellevue yards Friday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock and one arm and one leg was crushed so badly that as first it was feared amputation of the arm at least would be necessary. Mr. Hobson resides in Fort Wayne, having rooms with Conductor N. S. Patton at 1324 West Main street. He is a member of Fort Wayne lodge No. 136, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, and is well known in railway circles in the city. He left here Friday as a brakeman in Conductor Charles Compton's crew and had just arrived in Bellevue when the accident happened.

DUEL CLUB BANQUET.

Over 200 Members and Guests Enjoy a Feast.

Earl Stickley acted as toastmaster and General Manager C. M. Meyers, Hon. H. M. Hilgemann, George Jacobs and A. M. Groves were the speakers at the annual banquet of the Duelle club at the Elks' Temple, Saturday night. The speeches were all of a patriotic character and were well received and applauded by the 200 or more members and guests. The club quartet, composed of Louis Leechner, L. Mulligan, James Crowe and Roy Marsh and an orchestra composed of William Fry, O. W. Volland and D. Rowley furnished the music for the occasion, with the assistance of Jerome Kohrman and Miss Mulligan playing a piano duet. Mr. Kohrman, who is chairman of the entertainment committee, was given a vote of thanks for the excellent manner in which he performed his duties.

DEDICATION AT EAST YARDS.

The item in the city papers Saturday concerning a flag demonstration at the east yards Tuesday afternoon was erroneous inasmuch as it stated that the men back of the patriotic demonstration were the employees of the Pennsylvania shops. The flag to be dedicated at 4:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon was purchased by the yard office force and the yardmen under General Yardmaster Henry Bley, and the dedication will be of the patriotic character which prevailed at the dedication of the flags at the shops and the roundhouse last Saturday afternoon. The dedication of the pole and flag provided by the east car shop employees has been delayed by the non-arrival of the flag, ordered several days ago. The men have word that the flag will arrive this week and if it does the dedication will take place next Saturday.

RAISED FLAG ON SUNDAY.

Because of the very busy condition of the blacksmiths at the Bass works the dedication of the flagpole and the hoisting and unfurling of the flag for the first time on it was held yesterday afternoon. All of the employees were present and Assistant General Foreman Jacob Hausbach was master of ceremonies. The flag is a handsome one, being 16x20 feet in dimensions and was purchased by the employees of the blacksmith shop. Five or six other poles erected in the past two weeks at the Bass shops are still without flags. The banners have been ordered, but so far have not been received. When they arrive they will be hoisted over the several departments of the foundry not yet supplied.

WILL DEDICATE THURSDAY.

The eighty-foot steel pole, which is one of the most handsome in the city and which was erected on ground just west of Fairfield avenue and south of the Wabash master mechanic building last week, will receive its flag and be dedicated with appropriate ceremonies at the noon hour Thursday. This pole and flag were purchased by contributions of the men in the offices and shops. They also purchased and erected over the machine shop several weeks ago a handsome flag.

LOOKING INTO TRACK NEEDS.

Division Engineer Guy Scott, Master Carpenter D. C. Zook and Bridge Supervisor C. R. Ladd, with three or four of the maintenance of way carpenters as motive power, are making a trip on a hand car over the Western division of the Pennsylvania this week. They started from Gary on a hand car this morning and are coming east, inspecting bridges, culverts and other parts of the road, enroute, to determine what improvements are necessary.

HAD ANKLE BROKEN.

G. M. Stripp is at the Lutheran hospital with a broken ankle, the result of an accident this morning. Mr. Stripp, who is employed in the Pennsylvania warehouse, was assisting in handling some metal, when one of the pieces slipped off the wagon and struck his ankle with the result mentioned. He is one of the faithful and reliable employees at the warehouse, having been employed there ten years.

CHANGES AT THE LIGHTS.

E. F. Herber, who came from the farm, and W. F. Helm took employment of the department of the store house at the General Electric works over which Herschel Fell has jurisdiction. F. McMaiken, who worked in that department four or five years, resigned this morning. He purchased a farm three or four miles north of the city and is now preparing to move his family on it.

G. A. LEEPER RESIGNS.

Gerald A. Leeper, who has served three or four years as a clerk in the Pennsylvania shops, the past two years in the pipe and copper shop, has accepted employment with the Southern Pacific company and will leave the latter part of the week for El Paso, Texas, which will be his headquarters for awhile at least. His successor at the shop has not been named.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE MEETS.

The executive committee of the Northeastern Indiana Volunteer Firemen's association, of which Fred G. Duryee and G. F. Rogge, of the General Electric works, are members, held a meeting in Fort Wayne yesterday to discuss and make arrangements for the annual tournament, which will take place at Garrett, Thursday, June 28.

CELEBRATED BIRTHDAY.

E. L. Conklin, of the Pennsylvania creeling shop, was host yesterday at a party in which were a number of his relatives and a few of his most intimate associates. The gathering was in celebration of the young man's birth anniversary. He was twenty years old today.

Y. M. C. A. MANAGEMENT.

The monthly meeting of the committee of management of the Railroad Department Y. M. C. A. will be held Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the Railroad association building. H. T. Simpson, assistant division engineer of the Pennsylvania company, is chairman of this committee.

WHEAT, CORN AND HAY FIGURE IN ADVANCES

Farmer Contracts to Sell Load of Corn at $1.60 Per Bushel.

In the market advance of Monday hay, corn and wheat figured with honors just about even. Hay, which has not been higher than $13 this year, jumped to $15.50 over Sunday. The high price in corn, which has been $1.48, jumped to $1.50 per bushel, and one farmer who sold a load at the latter figure today, contracted to bring another in tomorrow, which is to be purchased by the second party of the contract for $1.60 a bushel.

Wheat did the customary thing and advanced 6c, dragging flour with it to the extent of 20c. This makes the grain $1.36 @ 1.38, and seems to predict that bread may be forced out of common usage. Receipts were naturally light all around at the beginning of the week and only six loads were weighed at the city scales. Three of these were hay and the other three corn. No oats appeared.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS.

Chicago, April 16.—Scarcity of offerings and the eagerness with which they were snapped up hoisted wheat prices today far above previous records. New crop features at first showed a downward tendency on account of better weather conditions but later rallied owing to strength of cash wheat and of the May option. Opening prices which ranged from 2 1/2c decline to 1 1/2c advance, with May at $2.25 1/2 to $2.26, and July at $1.90 to $1.90 1/2, were followed by decided upturns all around.
Corn as well as wheat jumped to new top figures. After opening unchanged to 1/2c higher, the market reacted a little but then scored a general advance well above Saturday's finish.
Oats hardened with other cereals. Weakness in the hog market had a depressing effect on provisions.

The DAY ON WALL STREET.
New York, April 16.—Gains and losses for the most part fractional, were quite evenly distributed during today's early dealings, trading being light in volume and of a cautious character. Equipments and munitions were variable, with the several groups of war issues. Rails developed further irregularity, especially coals. Reading losing half a point, with two points for Norfolk and Western. This was offset to a degree by the strength of Baltimore and Ohio and Louisville and Nashville. Gas shares were again among the weak features. People's Gas losing three points. United States Steel reacted from its firm opening, with some tendencies in prominent individuals.
Operations broadened later and pressure became more active. Soft spots were found by professional traders and additional liquidation seemed to result from the president's proclamation emphasizing the need of economy and small profits. U. S. Steel fell 1 1/2, with 2 1/2 for Bethlehem Steel, new stock, and one to three for most industrial and war issues. Marines weakened on reports that Great Britain had extended its control over ships of

Says a glass of hot water and phosphate prevents illness and keeps us fit.

Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of incalculable material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken day after day leaves in the alimentary canal a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not completely eliminated from the system each day, becomes food for the millions of bacteria which infest the bowels. From this mass of left-over waste, toxins and ptomaine poisons are formed and sucked into the blood.

Men and women who can't get feeling right must begin to take inside baths. Before eating breakfast each morning drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash out of the thirty feet of bowels the previous day's accumulation of poisons and toxins and to keep the entire alimentary canal clean, pure and fresh. Those who are subject to sick headache, colds, biliousness, constipation, others who wake up with bad taste, foul breath, backache, rheumatic stiffness, or have a sour, gassy stomach after meals, are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store, and begin practicing internal sanitation. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone an enthusiast on the subject.

Remember inside bathing is more important than outside bathing, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, causing poor health, while the bowel pores do. Just as soap and hot water cleanses, sweetens and freshens the skin, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.—Advertisement.

"EDITORIAL" MAGAZINE SUSPENDS PUBLICATION

High Cost of Material Given as Cause by the Editor,
John B. Stoll.

[Special to The Sentinel.]

Columbia City, Ind., April 16.—The "Editorial," published weekly at South Whitley, and edited by John B. Stoll, of South Bend, has suspended, after two years of wide circulation. High cost of printing materials forced the cessation of the magazine, which contained some of the best thought on national and current events, taken from editorials in the leading papers, journals, magazines and political and economic periodicals.

Short Notes.

In a runaway track meet Saturday afternoon on the Columbia City high school campus, the locals defeated Laketon high school 78 1/2 to 15 1/2. Laketon getting only one first—in the 440-yard dash. Pence, for Columbia, turning first in the shot put, running City, was the big point setter, capturing Logan won first in the 100-second dash, going the distance in 11.5 seconds, while McNabb won the 220 yard in 26 seconds. The county track meet occurs in this city Saturday afternoon, May 5.

Otto Miller, aged 16, and son of William D. Miller, general store manager of Elma, and Ronald, 19, son of Dr. J. W. C. Scott, of Elma, ran away from home Friday night, were motored to this city by a brother of the Scott lad, and went to Fort Wayne, where they enlisted in the navy. They had been contemplating joining the navy for several weeks, but their parents held forth strong objections.

A mail pouch destined for this city March 21 was found in the river below the Pennsylvania railroad bridge Friday by Frank Lickie. It was thrown from westbound train No. 23, and its contents were pretty well soaked. The mail catcher and mail receiver for mail from westbound trains stands too close to the river, and often a second's difference in time means that the pouches fall into the river.

Eulalie Hoard, daughter of Charles Hoard, has been brought home from Fort Wayne, where she took treatment in a hospital, while recovering from pneumonia. Her uncle, Ellis Hoard, member of the county council, is now seriously ill, threatened with the same disease.

Six local high students will take the fourteen days' special military training course in Culver military academy, beginning April 30. They are Robert Meiser, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Meiser; Carl Mersches, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mersches; Dewitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McLaughlin; Tommy, son of Jacob Portman; Wayne, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Spaulding, and William Alton, brother of Mrs. J. B. Holloway.

Mrs. Charles F. Schinbeck has been notified of the death of her uncle, William Embury, who visited here only last fall, returning to his farm home near Lamar, Kan., in November. Mr. Embury was a former resident of Union township, leaving for the west thirty years ago. He was 72 years of age, and is survived by his wife, a daughter, Mrs. Effie Sharp, and two brothers, Jacob Douglas, of Coesee, owns a half ton of German potash that he purchased for $42.50 a ton. It is done up in bags of fifty pounds capacity, with the plain print, showing that it came from Germany. Mr. Douglas has been offered $350 for his half ton, but will keep it a while longer.

Frank Schultz, superintendent of the city power plant, has purchased the residence property of Will Markwelder on East Market street, and will occupy it. Mr. Markwelder has reserved the west half of the lot and will erect a fine bungalow for his own occupancy.

DRINK WATER TO AVOID SICKNESS SAYS AUTHORITY

Glass of hot water before breakfast daily keeps the doctor away.

Sanitary science has of late made rapid strides with results that are of untold blessing to humanity. The latest application of its untiring research is the recommendation that it is as necessary to attend to internal sanitation of the drainage system of the human body as it is to the drains of the house.

Those of us who are accustomed to feel dull and heavy when we arise, splitting headache, stuffy from a cold, foul tongue, nasty breath, acid stomach, can instead, feel as fresh as a daisy by opening the sluices of the system each morning and flushing out the whole of the internal poisonous stagnant matter.

Everyone, whether ailing, sick or well, should, each morning, before breakfast, drink a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it to wash from the stomach, liver and bowels the previous day's indigestible waste, sour bile and poisonous toxins, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary canal before putting more food into the stomach. The action of hot water and limestone phosphate on an empty stomach is wonderfully invigorating. It cleans out all the sour fermentations, gases, waste and acidity and gives one a splendid appetite for breakfast. While you are enjoying your breakfast the phosphated hot water is quietly extracting a large volume of water from the blood and getting ready for a thorough flushing of all the inside organs.

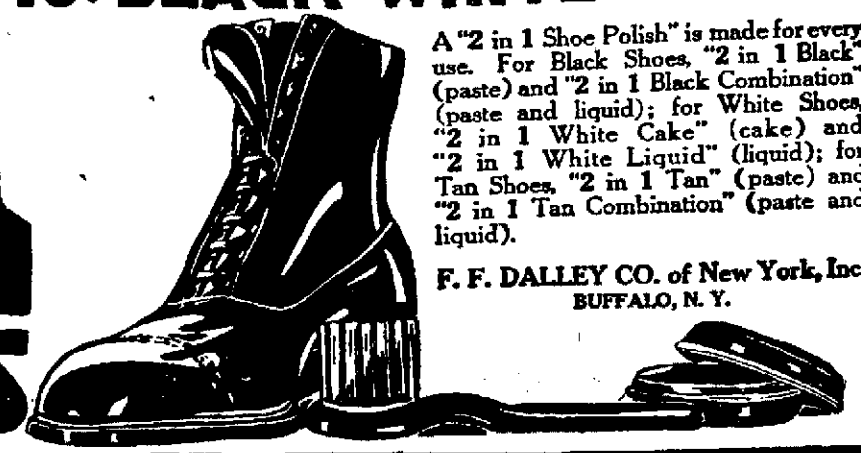

The millions of people who are bothered with constipation, bilious spells, stomach trouble, rheumatic stiffness; others who have sallow skins, blood disorders and sickly complexions are urged to get a quarter pound of limestone phosphate from the drug store. This will cost very little, but is sufficient to make anyone a pronounced crank on the subject of internal sanitation.—Advertisement.

LINCOLN LIFE TAKES OVER PIONEER CO.

Fort Wayne Insurance Company is Now a $52,000,000 Concern.

All details connected with the consolidation of the Lincoln Life Insurance company and the Pioneer Life Insurance company, of North Dakota, have been completed, by which the local concern is now a $52,180,227 institution.

From its infancy the Lincoln Life has been one of the most rapidly growing insurance companies in the country. Today it ranks with the best, with a future that is not surpassed by any other company of its kind in the world.

While this growth has been rapid, it has at the same time been the result of careful business methods, insuring confidence and the good will of those with whom it does business.

So far as Indiana is concerned the Lincoln Life has for several years led all other companies in the state. Last year seventy-five companies wrote life insurance in Indiana, but notwithstanding the Lincoln Life led all of them in the amount of new business and in the net gain of insurance in force.

As a result of the consolidation of the two companies the Lincoln Life will gain in assets almost $1,000,000, over $100,000 of which is added surplus to policy holders. The assets are now $4,123,841, and the surplus protection over all liabilities to policy holders is $546,257. The income of the Lincoln Life will be more than $2,250,000 this year.

There will be no changes in the local officers. T. D. Hughes, formerly vice president and manager of agencies of the Pioneer Life, has been elected fourth vice president and manager of northwestern agencies and W. W. Scott, formerly treasurer of the Pioneer Life, has been elected an assistant secretary. These gentlemen will remain in Fargo, North Dakota, where the Lincoln Life owns its own building.

This office will be known as the Pioneer branch of the Lincoln Life.

Five million dollars worth of new business has been written for the first quarter of the year, representing a 70 per cent increase over the same period in 1916. With the Pioneer company more than $20,000,000 worth of new business will be written this year and the assets of the company will pass the $5,000,000 mark.

The bi-annual examination required by the insurance laws of the state is now being made. Through a request of the officers of the company the Indiana insurance department invited the states of North Dakota and Ohio to join in the examination which will be conducted by six men. Thirty days will be required to complete the examination.

REV. BOSCH TELLS WHY HE'S REFORMED MEMBER

Says His Church Does Not
Foster Spirit of Fanaticism and Intolerance.

Rev. John R. Bosch, pastor of St. John's Reformed church, gave several reasons in an address Sunday evening at the First Presbyterian church why he is a member of the Reformed church.

He pointed out that "reformed" means reshaped, made over, made better, freed from evils and abuses. The Reformed church is one of the very first fruits of the Reformation, he said. Zwingli and Luther were the first two great men who, as mighty instruments in God's hands, started the great Reformation movement.

Rev. Bosch declared he is a member of the Reformed church because it upholds the whole Bible as the true Word of God and as the only infallible, supreme and final authority in all matters pertaining to the Christian faith and life to the organization, power and administration of the visible church; because it has exalted Christ as the true, eternal and natural Son of God; because it emphasizes "that although we are righteous before God only by true faith in Christ, that saving faith, without good works, not works of merit but of thankfulness, is impossible and dead;" because it points to the sacrifice and death of Christ on the cross as the most important and supreme act in the great work of salvation of man, accomplished by Him; because it teaches the two sacraments, Holy Baptism and the Holy Supper; because it does not oppose religious investigation and progress, and because it does not foster the spirit of fanaticism and intolerance.

AUBURN NEWS.

Auburn, Indiana, April 16.—Nine members have been added to Company K in the past few days, but still they are sixty members shy of the standard required.

The commencement exercises of the Auburn high school will be held on Thursday evening, May 24. The class has secured the services of Professor Smith, president of the Ada, Ohio, college, to deliver the class address. There are twenty-eight in the class.

Mrs. H. L. Lawrence and son have returned from a week's visit with friends in Chicago.

troit, were week-end guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Amos Hilkey, of Phillips street.

The old High-Y club held another interesting meeting at the Y. M. C. A. building Sunday afternoon and listened to a very instructive address by Col. A. L. Kuhlman, his subject being "War." Nearly all the members were present.

Many Auburn people will go to Fort Wayne Thursday in response to an invitation from the mayor of that city to attend a big patriotic meeting to be held there on that date.

Miss George Goebelin, of Fort Wayne, was a week-end guest of Mrs. Harry Myers.

The Kerst Evangelistic party are still holding their meetings in the Huselman building on South Main street and quite a number have been converted. They expect to continue throughout this week at least.

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Altenberg, of this city, have received a letter from their son, Harry, who is a student at the Northwestern university, stating that he has joined the ambulance corps in the national guard company which was recently organized there.

The patriotic meeting held at the Methodist church Sunday was attended by many people and the services were indeed beautiful. The house of worship was artistically decorated with the "Stars and Stripes" and the music was all patriotic.
